

GIVING THE KEYS OF THE TRUTH

WHAT IS THE TRUTH

This question posed by Pontius Pilate, Christ remains silent. Yet a few moments ago, if the first named was assumed attention, the being of light had answered this question in these words.

I came into the world to bear witness to the truth.

Now we must make it clear to Pilate as most men of this generation is, and that the rest of today, listen, receive, hear but not understand the divine word, and n ' to grasp the meaning.

The words of Christ quoted above, are yet clear.

Throughout his earthly teaching, then he's still among men, the being of light has often put the emphasis on truth, so that the human being so the reign of darkness of this world to know ossified in which he was imprisoned, and enters the world of light, in the reign of God and thus become aware of new data on what is true and real.

From the moment we know nothing about the existence of that which consists of its origins, its primary source, we are right of course, we ask the same question that Pilate.

What is truth?

In response, the man and it is essential to have an open mind and be receptive. It is imperative to reject his sufficiency, his pride, his vanity, which are all obstacles for development and spiritual progress, but mostly he wants to increase his knowledge, to exhibit humility and wisdom . It must finally admit that his knowledge of spiritual information and specifically those specific to the existence in all its forms and components, are unknown to him.

Only then can come close. The man knows the truth very little because of his blindness, his confinement in the field, and his refusal to leave. Christ has striven to prove it, using it for unpublished works and disseminating new words and saving as highlighting a depth never reached.

The BEING OF LIGHT, and God had said to the prophets, is the good shepherd not only men but also sheep not of this fold, (hear the man living on earth) as had been specified Christ, that is to say those who were still trapped in hell. (What are these, that Christ designated as living in another barn) The two herds will become one, and know the truth.

But what is truth?

The quality of what is consistent, this is true, accurate, real. This is the principle and source of any axiom determining and demonstrating compliance with any knowledge of reality. The truth at last, is the affirmation of what really exists.

If one accepts that truth is the whole and it is, man remains in material terms binary, do know a tiny component as the most important, the larger is in the spiritual sky which he knows nothing.

However, we must recognize that those who seek to penetrate this enigma, occurring in all directions, knock on every door, questioning pseudo masters of wisdom, to get satisfactory answers, clear and precise, without success.

But most philosophies developed by these so-called wise men, and distributed here and there on the planet, not only did not respond, but those who have developed, unaware of the subject.

That's why men continue to seek.

Remember my friends, when the BEING OF LIGHT directed at men, said:

Nobody goes to the Father except through me. If you want to know the end, seek the beginning first, because that is the end.

Anyone who wants to go to the celestial world, should first, seek GOD, because the SUPREME BEING OF LIGHT IS itself, the infinite celestial kingdom, the ALL, the existence in all its components, container and ALL content, the first and last, the ONLY LIVING DIVINE BEING. He is the heavenly Jerusalem, the Divine Temple housing ALL. He is both movement and rest.

GOD is, and he often said, the ONLY LIVING BEING, not only because he is LIFE, but only him possesses it. Before him there was nobody, and by him, no one else. He is the ONE and ONLY BEING, which really exists.

Given what has been said, let's review the response of the BEING OF LIGHT to Pilate.

I came into the world to bear witness to the truth.

That phrase alone gives the answer. There can not be any sharper, clearer.

GOD, the BEING OF LIGHT, the SUPREME BEING, the HOLY SPIRIT, IS THE TRUTH. He is;

The way, the truth, the life.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

WILL BE CARRIED DOES IT STILL?

The BEING OF LIGHT replied:

Everything that is born, everything is created; all elements of nature are interwoven and united them. Everything will be broken up. Everything will return to its roots. The matter will return to the origins of matter.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

The response of the BEING OF LIGHT can confuse more than one surprise in the other, and yet it is clearly and accurately.

However, it seems necessary to make some clarifications or explanations to help you better understand.

In regard must of course understand substance which anything is done, (wood, metal, stone, earth, plants) as well as envelopes or fleshly human bodies, that of the animal in its diversity and plurality, the universe and what it contains, the various elements that compose and all its components.

Matter is alive.

From the beginning, when the BEING OF LIGHT decided to proceed with the creation of everything that exists and lives, he undertook a first step, create material, basic or original element at all, and entering the training and composition of EVERYTHING. Then, starting from her, he formed the infinite kingdom, comprising the spiritual universe, and finally, our material universe and the binary world of darkness, and what they contain.

The original material is the root and the unique component of ALL. It is both unique and identical across the kingdom infinity, while following a different pattern, and contains particles composed of dissimilar but related and bound together, from one universe to another. It is the same for all they contain.

God made sure that close links and unites different worlds. The material, although any one universe to another, interwoven, fits, blends, interpenetrating.

We thus obtain an inter action of the various elements that constitute and make up.

The source or first principle of original material is the same everywhere, while retaining its roots, follows a different path and is composed of elementary particles of a dissimilar nature, whatever form it may consist.

She has served as the basis for creating all that exists.

Thus, only within each universe of spiritual or material bit like ours, material that consists in its diversity, follows a precise pathway, functional and evolutionary enables all in harmonization, to serve as foundation, of components and communication between them.

Its usefulness is enhanced, and helps maintain a link and an extension between the various elements of the matter composing all the universe, and what they contain.

The fundamental character of living matter, is to be composed of discrete particles, arranged them in an order determined. It is organized and each part has a physical structure and clean contacts with other parts of the close functional relationship.

The matter is at large, and through all its components such as a chain, each link is connected and united, and makes relative to each other, driving forces for their respective active ingredient, to be useful to spiritual beings that we are occupying the carnal envelope that consists.

When God decided to put our first parents on earth for reasons that we know, he gave them, so that they may evolve a fleshly envelope, including the elements that has made, are identical in every point material (including the planet earth is made up) from where it originates.

Therefore, the human body is called matter, since it involved elements of nature and somehow the extension, the extension and another form of various elements or body composed of matter.

Everything will be broken up, will return to its roots, says the BEING OF LIGHT. The matter will return to the origins of matter.

By this, we must understand that not only the matter as such is a living entity, but also in transforming itself, by amending it participates in many respects to the active principle of all bodies and existing compounds that in all the world, and remains involved in the building functional at ALL.

The matter is also that which persists after the change or transformation of body, when life is withdrawn.

Vile material or elemental component, it becomes active material and therefore useful in the spiritual entity, as it is used as garment, that is to say, as carnal envelope.

Also, as we now know it from the original matter, that God fashioned the human body, used for vehicle or clothing to the spiritual entity.

There was therefore from the outset by this operation, a composition of the elements constituting the human body, and the other union to last through the etheric body, the spiritual entity.

When the cycle of earthly life comes to an end, the time limit granted to any man ends life is removed from the human body and the material that is composed degenerating, becomes what it was originally, or on land original. This is for any field component, not only the different worlds, but also what they contain.

It returns to its roots, or if you wish, to its origins.

Peter addressing the BEING OF LIGHT, said:

Since you do the elements and interpreter of world events, tell us what is the sin of the world?

Christ said:

There is no sin. It is you who make sin, when you act in accordance with the habits of your nature adultery, there is sin.

That's why the good has come among you. He attended the elements of your nature in order to reunite with his roots.

That is why you are sick and why you die. This is the consequence of your actions. You do what you away.

Who can?

To help you better understand the response of the being of light, the question of Peter; it is necessary that I proceed by step, reminding you of some data.

The BEING OF LIGHT clearly a truth unknown to men, that there is no sin for one simple reason.

GOD, THE SUPREME BEING, being by nature good, right, just, love, peace, hate evil in all its forms, from the beginning, that is to say from the establishment of the kingdom and the infinite that it contains, (I mean different universe with celestial beings who evolve) a plan of life for all beings that would place whose nature is of course based on the same principle as him.

For this reason, the being of light was that from the beginning, the root of existence, its fundamental principles were based on the property.

Hence the absolute absence of sin.

Remember my friends, who from the beginning allowed sin to exist. I am of course talking about the foul Satan, who by his pernicious and harmful intentions, led by his lies, Adam and Eve to disobey God, thus causing disturbances whose effects were negative consequences for undermining the peaceful atmosphere which reigned throughout the kingdom of heaven.

Because of them, the sin makes its appearance. Sin has been, from that moment.

That is why the BEING OF LIGHT provides this clarification to Peter

It is you (men) who make sin exist, when you act in accordance with the habits of your nature adultery. There is sin.

The man, specifically one who chooses according to its nature, weakness and ignorance Satanic philosophy whose foundation is based on the evil and falsehood, creates disastrous effects of its negative actions, causing suffering.

The fact there is sin, feeding, maintenance.

Men who engage in evil, who live in hatred, sin and developing locked into a straitjacket inextricable which they can not escape. The material then takes over, and keeps them in blindness.

They are like death.

Let the dead bury their dead.

You now have the deep meaning of this sentence.

The BEING OF LIGHT continued:

That's why the good has come among you. He attended the elements of your nature, in order to reunite with his roots.

Having noticed that men having allowed sin to exist, then by their wicked behavior, maintained, and therefore they had great difficulty in discarding, to get rid of the BEING OF LIGHT occurred among men.

Thus he first spoke to Moses, to whom he provided extensive data in the form of precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments, and finally to the various prophets who preceded his arrival among men.

God has revealed to men the fundamentals of the original nature which is itself an element or more precisely the central source, with the clear aim of helping them. The latter, taking into account and of course by applying it with faith, will be rid of all their flaws and of course, sin.

That is why, in order to finalize its redemptive and saving, the BEING OF LIGHT himself came among men to reveal their many secrets and hidden data, to bring men back to their roots, that they return, abandoning and rejecting this time for sin.

Coming among men, the being of light, wanted above all, serve as an example, be a model for humans, and that it therefore the copy, imitate.

In dwelling among men, sharing their lives, serving as an example, putting a finger on their failure and exposing to light, that God brought the man on the right path. He revealed to them and the original root of existence, goodness, kindness, justice, love, fairness, compassion, sense of sharing, humility. He liked to say:

Learn what means, I take pleasure in mercy, not sacrifice.

Hence the promise of God:

I will give you rest, and eternal life.

That is why the BEING OF LIGHT states that sin is the consequence and the fact harmful acts of men, based on evil, which distances them from God, and prevent them from walking on the road leads to light.

The term of such conduct, (evil, malice, hatred, cruelty, bloodshed, lying ...) is death.

The attachment to the material creates a passion against nature. The disorder is born. Be consistent if you are maladjusted. Inspire your representations of your true nature.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

This topic stems from it will be the last. BEING OF LIGHT has repeatedly warned people about the consequences of their acts against nature, ie based on the evil which incidentally they ignore the essence and the harmful effects it generates, of overflowing interest they attach to property, and the unbridled pursuit of power that inevitably leads the subject on the path to blindness, honors pernicious it arouses, and away from the road to light.

The man still does not know what is good and evil, and especially good or bad effects they induce.

The attachment to material goods, and of course the human body through to the last of the pleasures of the flesh, causing a shrinking share of space and scope, causes blindness, contains the spiritual entity that we are in a straitjacket, isolating the real world, prevented from arguing with objectivity and diminishes its capacity for understanding, access to knowledge, knowledge, and of course the truth.

The man then undergoes an alteration and weakening of his moral, mental, emotional, making it vulnerable and unable to resist the deceptive about the son of perdition by analyzing carefully and properly, which is just what does the is not. Their inability to make judgments sensible and coherent, to make appropriate decisions, sound and profitable is obvious. On the other hand, this situation brings spiritual entity in confining himself (in materialism, to identify with its carnal envelope) to create negative masses that cause her addiction, making slaves of the effects, needs and causes harmful it will be extremely difficult to dispose of, including:

The urge, desire, lust.

Leading inexorably to the ignorance and blindness.

The man becomes dependent on these defects, and can not discard. It is thus led to commit acts inconsistent, irrational, monstrous among which we find:

Racism, slavery, theft, hatred, aggression, violence, indifference, murder...

Man loses thus all benchmarks, morally and mentally weakened, becomes vulnerable and accessible to wickedness. There shall no longer possible to distinguish between good and evil, right and wrong, truth and falsehood. Therefore it becomes weak, unable to make a sensible decision, introverted, and is carried away on a slippery path that leads to darkness.

The very nature of man undergoes a change due largely to waves and negative mass, which he himself creates, and he suffers the adverse effects and actually becomes a slave. It then remains in the grip of the effects of materialism which he is himself the author, who by his wicked acts, puts them into works.

THE BEING OF LIGHT says:

The disorder is born. Be consistent if you are maladjusted. Inspire your representations of your true nature.

God also gives this advice:

Whoever wants to give up vice, must replace it by virtue.

The true nature alluded to the BEING OF LIGHT, the origin or root of the spiritual entity that we truly are, which God, the SUPREME BEING is the source and the first principle.

Do us does not create identical to him?

That is to say, we want to be like him, good, fair, law, human beings, peace and love.

Therefore from the beginning or the beginning, he set up an infinite heavenly kingdom, whose nature is governed by the order, love, fairness, humility, rules of decorum and respect mutual. GOD from the beginning to put gasoline in our spiritual roots from its true nature.

Man stuck in materialism which he suffered adverse effects, if he should cling to its roots and its divine origins whose GOD is the first divine principle:

At first, renounce materialism, the unbridled pursuit of material goods and pleasures of unjust power, giving birth to desire aggressive, pleasure and boundless evil, greed and disastrous, that keep the man in the ignorance and slave of his senses, and leads him to completely forget his true origins, and consequently, his true self.

Secondly understand that not following the example of the being of light whose nature and he has shown men, is based on love, kindness, humility, fairness, justice, compassion, mercy, peace, he plunges into the irredeemably evil in all its forms, and die.

He must therefore, if he wants to escape, trying to imitate God, by fully applying throughout his life, every day and every moment, the precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments GOD.

It is necessary first to seek God, who alone can save us, then of course, love and share what we have with those who did not. For others, love, help and support, advice, without ulterior motive and unselfishly. Spontaneously offered, namely, knowledge, and the poor and needy, the indispensable to their survival and their future so that everyone can change, rising spiritually and find God.

Be in harmony with the philosophy of fair and saving God, by imitating, following his example and taking his advice.

As a spiritual entity, your spiritual essence is after the fountain of God, your heavenly Father will truly rise to the same to him. I mean is, that you offered to your birth the same nature as his.

The spiritual origins of man, they do not belong to God?

The roots of the human body spiritual excellence, are from God. Like the A. D.N. rights has roots from his father and mother Earth. I'm here, of course referring to the envelope of the carnal man.

The same applies to our spiritual essence, which has the root of our Heavenly Father, God.

Our roots and our origins are from God.

The BEING OF LIGHT said:

I am the vine, ye are the branches.

This sky will pass and the one above.

The dead have no life, the living have no death.

The day you eat what is dead, you were doing in life. When you are in the light, what will you do?

At the time you were One, you've done two. But then, being two, what will you do?

To better understand and penetrate the exact meaning of words above the BEING OF LIGHT, it is important, as I've often written, do not forget he has always addressed men as an 'divine entity and not otherwise, and secondly, that his words are only located in this context.

If you try to place them, interpreting them in terms of materialism, you distort the meaning and not be able to penetrate the essence.

God told the prophets, in the time expected and known only to himself, he would establish a new heaven and new earth. But when he came on earth among men there are two thousand years, they brought both the true heavenly food, that is to say a word containing the saving truth in all its aspects, knowledge and knowledge of mysteries both land and sky, but also and especially, the divine light.

The love of God towards men is so great that he wanted to free and save them from the materialism plan in which they are stuck and trapped, aided by the foul Satan like today had the rest, misled, so they stay there and do not leave.

Remember my friends; God has created him as a spiritual entity. Our body is merely a shell that we have covered, like a garment.

Also, just as Adam and Eve, and for the same reasons, if we are on earth, above all to redeem our mistakes, correct our mistakes, learning lessons that our Heavenly Father, we present and contained in its word, his commandments and his statutes and ordinances, commandments, in order to purify our spiritual essence, and thus have access to the heavenly universe.

Remember my friends, when God expelled Adam and Eve, not to mention the abject Satan and his fallen angels procession of the celestial universe, he had concealed the entrance to paradise by placing celestial bodies, with a mission to deny access to anyone who does not wash or clean his spiritual essence, endorses the divine psychology, based on teaching the word of God, and clinging to the original nature, that of the BEING OF LIGHT.

After having saved and freed the men there are two thousand years, the BEING OF LIGHT warned the apostles, after having left, they would prepare a place.

At this time, as promised, he put up a new heaven and new earth.

Access to the celestial world was once again possible.

Hence his words:

This sky will pass and the one above.

The following sentence although clear, however, requires clarification.

Man blinded by materialism becomes the toy or the slave of the prince of evil. This hardened his heart and makes him follow the path of ignorance and straying, leading her to indulge in carnal pleasures, material possessions, in order to continue its unbridled quest for power by employing that questionable methods as unfair whose essence comes from the Satanic philosophy. This man becomes indifferent to the suffering of others, and ultimately bloodshed.

He isolates himself from the path to the light of God departs and sinks inexorably into the darkness.

These men, though living in the world of human beings, are actually spiritually dead.

By those cons, following the advice of the BEING OF LIGHT reject evil in all its forms and working for the good in imitating God, they then maintain life and gain greater spirituality.

Remember my friends, this sentence of BEING OF LIGHT.

Let the dead bury their dead.

Yes verily I say unto you, he who walks with God, who feeds on his word, imitate, becoming like his heavenly Father is the example, love, goodness, justice, peace, that is, God will live. He will not die.

What has been said, this sentence says of Christ:

The dead have no life, the living have no death. At the time you were A, you've done two. But then, being two, what will you do?

To understand this sentence of the being of light, we must go back to the time when Adam and Eve lived in the Garden of Eden? That is to say, in the heavenly universe.

Their refusal to follow and learn the lessons were taught that GOD brought them out of ignorance, vanity and doubt, disobedience, helped by one who was at that time, the prince of the heavenly beings, I named Satan .

Having rejected God, led him to withdraw from this heavenly place, so that order and harmony reigns.

They were then A is to say they were like the heavenly beings (angels) spiritual entities, behaving and operating in the skies as such.

After having driven from the Garden of Eden, God placed them in the universe governed by the material, more precisely on the ground, so that they can move easily, the being of light gave them clothing appropriate to the universe concerned, using material that composed. They now had a fleshly envelope.

By their fault unspeakable, Adam and Eve A unique spiritual or entities that were initially caused by their disobedience to God, the building of two.

The human body which has been given by God to live and evolve on earth as a garment, to maintain in this area, isolating them in some sort of real spiritual world.

They themselves have caused the two;

That is to say, spiritual entity + carnal envelope.

Hence the expression of Christ You've done two.

In our case, we should not overwhelm our first parents, because we are no better (he only have to see how we behave), we have also committed the same mistakes.

We are on earth for the same reasons they, being unable to obey, to imitate God, and we connect to its roots with nature is the cornerstone.

Now our dearest wish is to achieve the UN, that is to say again what we were before we incarnate on earth, what we really are, but this time in awareness and finally, spiritual entities to return from whence we come, in the heavenly universe.

If we want to return and stay permanently this time, we have GOD as we recommended, renounce once and for all the evil in all its forms, working for the good, imitating God. All follow his example, obey him, for he is truly the way, the truth and the life.

Everything he says is true for men.

The sentence below disposes of what has been said.

When you are in the light, what will you do?

Answer:

Having refined our spiritual essence on earth, listening, obeying God, respecting and applying its precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments, we hung in his divine roots, by imitating him, which is love, goodness, justice and peace, finally giving up the evil in all forms, we will make every effort to stay on this path. We will do everything to stay permanently.

Therefore, our Heavenly Father after offering us eternal life with love will keep us near him.

Do not impose any rule, except that I witnessed. Do not add laws to those of one who established the law in order not to become slaves.

As I've often advised, there is nothing that God does know. It is the only person on whom time and its three components are secret because he is the master. The BEING OF LIGHT knows beforehand what will happen, and has often informed the prophets among others like me today, making it clear that he alone can change the course of events.

Because he knows the perfect man and in particular its ability inclined to indulge in easy, being in favor of least resistance often order brain latter thus tends to follow a philosophical movement pernicious without attempting to penetrate the essence in order to depart. His willingness to suffer the adverse influence of wicked men and computers, the dark hearts with designs inspired by the forces of evil which emerge from the hatred, aggression, violence, resentment, indifference, unable to make by his ignorance of the divine text, to resist them by highlighting their lies, and pushing data materialistic and negative effects they cause. Its difficult to respect and enforce rules and laws, or the ease to follow the diatribes shameless propagated by men spiritually dead, taking evident pleasure, tinged with vanity and pride, has the lead on the road leads into the darkness.

GOD Has not the beginning, specified the immutability of the divine law?

Did he not say that nothing should be added or subtracted?

Remember my friends, that the divine laws established by God, seek above all to unify, to maintain a perfect cohesion to enable everyone without exception to have its place, not only society but also in all industries, and govern the relations in all men, harmonize, giving each a dignity that it deserves. They set up the justice that applies to everyone without exception, and thus enable everyone to live happily and in peace. They give everyone equal rights and duties.

Unlike those men, often prescriptive, divide and share, grant immunity or decision makers often do not concern them, as they inevitably apply to small, while those of God, together.

In asking the apostles to impose any rule, the being of light will remind them that they must, while proclaiming the gospel and the coming of the kingdom of God, take into account several parameters.

The first concerns the lack of knowledge of men whatever in relation to terrestrial mysteries, which primarily affect and shape their immediate future, and those relating to the heavenly mysteries, which not only allow them to walk in truth, but above all knowing God, to stand beside him.

The second comes from the very nature of God, which as you know now, absolutely perfect. BEING OF LIGHT is the only person who is really good, just, love.

This is the main reason why, God created man (spiritual entity like him) entered its foundations by the divine roots he has offered data from its true nature, giving the man all the love he bears, and longing to see it evolve and rise spiritually, such as celestial beings, then trying to get the rest and eternal life.

The third takes into account the teaching of God, whose principle is the sweetness, affinity, tenderness, love.

GOD did he not say:

My yoke is good and fresh my authority.

Remember my friends, already in the beginning with Adam and Eve, the being of light was attached to transmit the information immediately, with gentleness, kindness and tenderness, already giving them their freedom and free will, while their indicating the way forward for their own development and that they should in no case adopt or follow them out the consequences that would follow if they disobeyed him.

After they have been known to follow the rules, Adam and Eve listened to Satan wanted to, modify, incorporating those of the devil. You know the rest.

The fourth is to bring the man to take precisely the right decisions and in this consciousness, passing it as God has always made himself know about what is right from what is not, good and evil, pernicious effects caused by the forces of evil and its consequences.

It is not simply to transmit the word of God to men or to know the path to God, taking for example the being of light itself, it is also subject to the disciple when s' address them to enable them to measure the depth, accuracy, the benefits for their evolution and especially the openness they provide so they can follow the path of light with confidence, knowing the risk they face if they follow the path of evil.

It is important that the man integrates these data, he finally knows his true Heavenly Father God, the world where it operates, and where it aspires to reach.

In stating the disciple the volatile nature of man, his propensity to be swayed by the evil beings spiritually dead who ignore the Word of God, do not know, nor with regard to divine data that are to nonexistent see them missing from their expertise, do their utmost best to remove the right path, and will not hesitate to pronounce the holy name of God as a major reference for the best lost, the messenger of God knows how protect.

BEING OF LIGHT will warn the disciple, and at the same time, provide the necessary weapons. As God did with Adam and Eve, he did the same with the apostles so that they effectively advise men to turn them stating not to add any new rules to those issued to GOD.

It possesses all those facts, that the man will integrate freely, accept, understand the scope and know how God speaks the truth.

This is not forcing anyone to adopt your ideas, your philosophy or rules without explanation tangible, fair and accurate, but also to highlight the consequences of negative actions that you can usefully help and get him well for his own spiritual evolution.

On the other side, show the person the right way, send him know just tell him the truth without hiding anything, or omit, teach him the word of God only, without having added anything, passages subtracted, or modified exact sense, made him aware of the precepts, laws and ordinances, the commandments of God, give them the keys to truth and knowledge, let them discover God, that endow these solid foundations, they know where to go.

Give them an example, in the person of the BEING OF LIGHT.

This is why Christ told the apostles:

Imposes no rules, except that I witnessed.

By attracting the attention of his disciples on this crucial point, the being of light (Christ) will not only remind them of what has been said above, but also bring them to the extent of their divine mission. They have received divine instruction, the ones who are carriers of knowledge unknown to men, must be able to predict the consequences of additions, rules of human laws enacted by the Supreme Being, and preserve.

Do not add laws to those of the person who established the law in order not to become slaves.

By giving these instructions to the apostles, the being of light that the man knew over the years, through weakness, ignorance, convenience, interest, or facilitated, by greed, immorality, for absconding, by obvious desire to enslave the people, to justify actions or decisions unfair, would eventually reject gradually the word of God, departing from the path to the light that is to say, God, change and add the divine laws and directives, laws of man from customs and traditions often minority, whose original data are essential framework to maintain by the designer, usually kings, policymakers, religious or unfair, the people in domination or the status of slave, see to prevent it from advancing spiritually.

When God gave men the law, there was talk of his hand, to offer to everyone without exception, a framework of fair and harmonious life, a line of conduct to encourage them to love and respect everyone, a plan action just and egalitarian. Eventually she offers men spiritual outlook obvious.

These laws of man, unrelated to the divine law, are flawed by their size, to prepare them and offer no redeeming opening. These are rules based on Aboriginal customs or practices imperfect, whose scope and interventionist directional only bring division, smooth, packaging, release, closed-mindedness and maintenance man slave of sense. They alter any judgments, and highlight the inability to measure what is right or penetrate the truth.

It is written:

But in vain they continue to worship me, because they teach for doctrines the commandments of men.

God does not approve of cults nations. He even punished his people when it deviated from its laws in adopting their practices.

MARIE MADELEINE asked CHRIST:

Lord, in the moment, he who contemplates your appearance, is it by the soul that he sees, or by the mind?

The BEING OF LIGHT replied:

Neither the heart nor the mind, but the intellect is in between. He sees and he hears that.

To enter the answer to the being of light and thus better understand, it is necessary first to know who is the man.

The human being is actually not as many people imagine or believe a duality, but a trilogy to be emerging that is characterized and is the spiritual entity.

To change, move and live in the universe governed by matter and therefore a fortiori on earth, God has added to the spiritual entity carnal envelope. If this were not the essence of the spiritual entity whose components belong and come from the divine essence of God, do not allow it. It then passes through the area and would not be able to remain on earth.

The man is actually composed of three parts.

The major part created by God in his likeness, that is to say the same divine essence, the entity SİRITUELLE. It has in its essence, the principal agent, the original source in which the being of light has placed its stamp of God, the less that characterizes us, giving us the same characteristics as himself, and roots with the seed of life that animates and gives life, allowing the spiritual entity of life, but also the principle which emanates from the right and ability to think, reason, think, act, understand, select, analyze It is also that it is memory and the active source.

By offering the outset to all this spiritual entity as opposed to animals which are only matter, God has wanted to show his love. By giving the spiritual entity of intelligence, freedom and choice, our heavenly Father wanted to show his commitment.

Then comes the second part, that man knows best, since it is identified with ignorance called carnal envelope.

The human body is nothing but an ingenious mechanical hardware, a unique combination of components, including the brain plays the role of both regulator and distributor of such a computer, he manages the functioning of 'Overall, under the control of the spiritual entity who has total domination.

Like the animal in that it resembles in all respects, the human body has in its nucleus, the spark of life that gives it life, whose duration is limited in time, in analogy with the germ of life that God has placed in the spiritual essence of the spiritual entity, which may remain forever.

The human body alone can not do anything, because his reason must be the spiritual entity that lives there, he used this as a clothing material.

The third part of the trilogy human, to my mind the most important because it is that, unknown men, who can connect and keep up the spiritual entity with its carnal envelope.

It is the unknown part, which it wrongly and ignorantly, has been likened to the soul or spirit, and therefore considered as such.

But you know now that the soul and spirit means in reality the spiritual entity, since they are part of its components.

So I will call this third part: HETER BODY

It actually has two component elements, both material and spiritual, including the original source material that forms their cores and thus allows their unions, he attribute this exceptional opportunity to connect the spiritual entity with its garment material, called carnal envelope.

St. Augustine wrote about this:

Modus quo spiritus corporibus member comprehendi ab homine non potest, et hoc tamen is home.

The way the mind is united to the body can not be understood by humans, and yet it is man.

Some people dissociate the soul of wit, considering dealing with two distinct parts, playing a specific role. Reasoning thus, clearly reflects a total ignorance of celestial mysteries.

The BEING OF LIGHT to this lack of knowledge can not learn all the men and apostles in particular, could only convey the essential while advancing steadily and gradually, especially during his appearance (resurrection) he data revealed their capitals.

For the most enlightened men, if the soul is the spiritual being, the spirit is the inner part, where it remains active.

If we leave our fleshly envelope, which is our vehicle, which allows us to move in the material universe in which we live, or clothing as suggested by BEING OF LIGHT, we must admit that we see and hear through specific organs created for that purpose, although they are emitting sources, but still only tools.

That is the spiritual entity which resides, which preserves the spirit of initiative, and that is the major principle acting.

It is the same for the motorist. His vehicle is a tool just like the human body to the man. He can see through the lights for example. Not seeing the vehicle but the driver who is in control of the car.

This is not your carnal envelope that sees, hears, thinks, thoughtful analysis, inventory data related to knowledge, has the sense of understanding and so on. But the spiritual entity that remains in the mind, the intellect, and the source of intelligence. The brain of the human body, super computer, the complexity out of the ordinary, which we normally complete domination and absolute control, manages the organs of human body to function, divided the various functions, controls the data received from nerves, eyes, ears, in fact provides the perfect cohesion of all elements of the carnal envelope.

It is the same as we are concerned, spiritual entity.

On the spiritual plane, spiritual entity is called soul or spirit, but these last two words actually have another definition, when one tries to penetrate deeply.

Thus the soul means in this case, the shape, container and contained some elements forming the spiritual entity. It all constituting the spiritual being, which actually represents, and is located in the mind.

The spirit on the other side is the inner part, that which contains, includes and encompasses "cells and spiritual bodies" used by the spiritual entity that allows him to manage his feelings, his emotions, his store of knowledge and where is the active principle and conscience.

The spiritual entity is in this case active source, the soul and spirit as defined above, remain spiritually speaking, vital tools, resources available to our spiritual essence or ME real deep.

Our spiritual essence is and you know now, the active source, which remains in the intellect. In the latter it is the germ of life, intelligence and the matrix that generates the active principle we can think, see, hear, reason, analyze, be in short, be active and independent. Yet here, as God is. This is what we are.

Our spiritual essence is and you know now, our actual performance.

Remember that phrase from the BEING OF LIGHT apostles:

Make sure that no one misleads you by saying:

Here it is here, or voila it's there. Because it is inside of you what the son of man.

For this reason, the question of Mary Magdalene, The BEING OF LIGHT replied:

Neither the heart nor the mind, but the intellect is in between. It is he who sees and hears.

The BEING OF LIGHT taught to Mary Magdalene and the mysteries of spiritual elevation, and human wisdom. He explained clearly how to wash her dress (its spiritual purging) and walk confidently on the path to the light, that is to say GOD cers, rid poisons land, such as envy, desire, greed and ignorance, and making him aware of the harmful effects they cause.

He gave the following account.

The desire is for the soul.

I have not seen you down, but now I see you go.

Why do you lie since you belong to me, "answered the soul.

I saw thee, thou hast not seen. You did not recognize. I was with you as a garment, and thou hast not felt.

Having said this, she went joyfully.

Then came her third atmosphere (default poison tare) known as ignorance.

It questioned the soul, calling him.

Where are you, have you not been dominated by an evil inclination?

Yes, you were indiscriminate, and you have been enslaved.

The soul answered then.

Why do you judge me?

I have not tried. I was dominated, I have not dominated.

We did not recognize me, but I have recognized that everything will be broken up on earth as in heaven.

Liberated from the third atmosphere, the soul continued to mount. She noticed the fourth atmosphere. She had seven events.

The first event is darkness.

The second desire.

Third, ignorance.

The fourth deadly jealousy.

The fifth, carnal influence.

The sixth drunken wisdom.

The seventh, sly wisdom.

These are the seven manifestations of anger that oppresses the soul of matter.

Where have you murder, where are you wandering?

The soul replied.

He who oppressed me was killed. He who is not wring, my desire has subsided and I was issued my ignorance. I'm going to silence.

The lesson we can draw from the text above, on the path to follow any spiritual entity incarnated on earth wants to achieve spiritual purification, and of course out of the materialistic matrix in which it is stuck.

The BEING OF LIGHT who took part in Mary Magdalene, known as the apostle that Christ loved him follow a specific teaching more appropriate, including the spiritual was such that he was about to help bridge the distorted that separated aster of disciples, but also bring in the positioning at the same level, to make them equal.

In this regard, Peter Wolf who do not, distinguished himself by asking the BEING OF LIGHT:

What kind of Mary Magdalene among us, because women are not worthy of life.

The BEING OF LIGHT, answered him.

Here I will guide to make the man. (Spiritual entity released) it will become also a breath of life like you, men. All women who will man enter the kingdom of God.

The initiatory text above was so vivid to allow Mary Magdalene as I said above, penetrating knowledge of unknown men and women even less, since at that time, they were relegated to second place, and had no access to knowledge, thus being kept in ignorance. The men had for them little consideration.

See the reaction of Peter. Is it different today?

This initiatory text reveals to Mary Magdalene and the mysteries of a hidden knowledge, hidden and not yet revealed to man on the brakes to their spiritual development, and of course to release the shackles of materialism.

It was to explain to Mary Magdalene, how a spiritual entity imperfect and therefore subject to human vices and subject to the influence of these defects may follow a specific path based on the precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments, love of others, the example of GOD, get rid of it for free eventually reach perfection and enter the heavenly kingdom.

The goal of the being of light, Mary Magdalene help achieve the level of the other apostles, so that together, embodied spiritual beings, men and women without distinction, to manage the release of BEING, and can go to God.

It must be acknowledged that Christ reveals to Mary Magdalene, education deepest mysteries about the land, affecting primarily the spiritual entity, whose effects ignored, blind and paralyzed the latter, as he did with other apostles.

Peter also pointed this out to others in those terms.

Is it possible that the master is well maintained with a woman on the secrets that we do not know us?

This specific training, maintenance also because Mary Magdalene, as Mathieu however, had solved the mystery of the being of light, hence the fact that Christ goes further forward in its revelations about the spiritual entity and its interaction with matter and more specifically the human body.

The culmination of this course, or more precisely its main target is to assist the applicant has the status of alert, to a total detachment from materialistic trivia, to reject and destroy the human poisons, such as envy, desire, greed, ignorance, to help us achieve a state of total denial of defects generated and stored by the spiritual entity, or those from other men, who pollute us.

These are the different atmospheres cited in the teaching of Christ, who maintain the spiritual entity in the matter, impossible to see and hear of course, to penetrate the truth, and leads to destruction.

By bringing it to have gestures, attitudes and thoughts of serenity, affinity, humility, love, the being of light through his example, he shows the path.

Returning for a moment on this text, and draw in the essence. We shall see, the influence of defects on the spiritual entity, and how it calmly, without animosity, no aggression or violence, with gentleness, kindness and love, without being judgmental or critical, it can rid.

By revealing the existence of poisons humans, BEING OF LIGHT shows the path followed by these pernicious tendencies which give rise to reactions and evil intent that undermine the evolution of man, the blind, prevents clearly see the truth and reason objectively and fairly. The spiritual entity at this point forget all reality loses all bearings, no longer knows who she really identifies with the material, no longer able to discern good from evil, right and wrong, truth from falsehood.

The spiritual entity because of these poisons, is therefore stuck in his fleshly envelope, becomes a slave, and can not discard.

From the moment one becomes aware of harmful effects caused by these defects, which overwhelm the mind of man, leads to actions harmful to himself and others, and frequently give rise to violence, aggression, theft, fraud, theft, slander, lying, indifference, racism, hatred, malice, murder etc.. and that is able to expand, it is possible to stop it, since we God longs to look and walk in his path. It is easy to understand, that we must absolutely reject them, (the faults) and especially destroy.

The spiritual being released, it easily defeated, especially since he knows that nobody can reach wakefulness, if this fails, and it is not possible to have access to the heavenly universe, if it has not.

Since the spiritual entity beyond the stage of the human journey by rejecting all its pernicious tendencies, and that they were missing in it, it naturally offers his knowledge to others by example, showing them the right path, and n 'therefore has no need of nothing, having won EVERYTHING. Its area was greatly enlarged his knowledge increases through the revelations about the hidden mysteries of heaven that God lavishes.

It is written:

You will all be taught of God.

The spiritual entity, having annihilates, is in possession of ALL did not need anything except to give and to transmit his knowledge free to others.

At this stage, desire, envy, greed, ignorance, anger, have more control over the spiritual entity, and have no effect on her.

That is why I tell you again, just the man to know, to be aware of the damage they cause and raise and then reject them annihilating.

That is why the soul says to desire:

I've seen thee, thou hast not seen. You did not recognize. I was with you as a garment, and thou hast not felt.

The next topic on ignorance, another obstacle to spiritual growth, because it forced the spiritual entity incarnate, to be locked in a small world, contrite, which she will in no case, arguing that the material universe is one in which it operates, and which remains its living space is the only one. This reasoning leads to her attachment to his planet, at home or in the course material wealth is ephemeral hers. This often includes all the data to the truth, true knowledge, the mysteries of heaven, to God, she knows nothing.

The ignorant, it somehow, to whom the truth has not been passed, and no reason, except the burning desire to aspire to the needs illusory earthly and materialistic, refuses to know before putting forward the data are false, in this based on their expertise in the field limited or nonexistent.

The ignorant, but also the limited knowledge regarding the mysteries of heaven, earth mysteries, and hence the absence of knowledge, denies truth, denies, and admit as real only what ' He sees and knows.

The ignorant is one who is overwhelmed by the effects induced by the negative inclinations, by vice, by the poisons mentioned above, causing waves and negative mass that alter its decision, its reasoning, and leads him to lie in an area constantly restricted and locked deeper into the material, making it the slave of sense, and blind to the truth.

The ignorant is he who lack discernment, which is incapable of whether he is mired in the material, and identifies with it, to recognize good from bad, right from wrong, pure impurity, truth from falsehood, reality from illusion.

The man remains in ignorance, such as denial, atheists, began using the facility and materialism as their creed to justify bellicose actions, where morality and ethics are absent. They are often aggressive, intolerant, racist, evil, give very little importance to other beings, especially those who are not of his social environment, cause suffering without feeling remorse. He locks himself in the matter, will be dominated by it, refusing all spiritual evolution and is subject to any criminal action adverse to him and more so for others. It goes straight to perdition. His mind is as stiff. He is more aware of realities, there is more access, and built a world on the fringes of the truth.

It is subject to any pernicious tendency, no sensitivity, sense of reality is altered, no longer exercise discretion, and is a little chance. It has no purpose or goal, because for him life has no before, but against a term whose death puts an end point. His life is a complete void.

The spiritual entity, which enters the divine knowledge, knowledge of the mysteries revealed by God, to access to divine knowledge, and can protect themselves as they did not make Adam and Eve, the Satanic philosophy that leads to the ignorance, lies and denial of truth. He knows the real world, no longer deaf and blind, and did not have the heart hardens.

That is why the soul says:

Why do you judge me. I have not tried, or dominated. I have not dominated.

Since we made the choice to choose as Mary Magdalene, for the purification of its spiritual essence in receiving divine knowledge revealed by the being of light, it is imperative to penetrate and understand the word of God, knowing that she is saving.

This is not following the path of men, based on materialism, individualism, ignorance of truth, rejection of divine law, the unbridled pursuit of profit, power, hatred, malice, indifference, deceit, we will succeed.

And that, MARIE MADELEINE had perfectly understood, which received special education, highlighting the obstacles to spiritual evolution that are poisons of sense and negative impulses, which cause adverse effects and undermine the development spiritual spiritual entity.

For the text image, the BEING OF LIGHT says to Mary Magdalene, the spiritual being in development or on the path of spiritual elevation, should not only confine or live in the materialism, but he must also reject and annihilating the human flaws and desires, seek God first, only able to release him and save him.

The poisons listed above, you understand, are committed by men. They are created by them, and exist only thanks to them, under the assistance of Satan since his intervention with Adam and Eve, and continues today, its harmful and destructive work.

These poisons have a goal, remember the man trapped material, its envelope of flesh, blinding and hardening his heart, making it impervious to the truth, divine knowledge, restricting his intellectual capacity, sense analysis and reasoning, level of understanding of reality, its ability to resist evil in all its forms.

By focusing on his faults or atmospheres, the being of light in his teaching, whether in respect of Mary Magdalene and the apostles, will know that whoever follows his words saving literally, by putting in practice, has actually putting them into effect an amendment to its spiritual essence, (he washes his coat in the words of Christ) and comes into harmony with God.

Therefore the Holy Spirit comes to meet him and allow him to receive divine knowledge, and penetrated by God, the heavenly mysteries hidden. He finally knows GOD.

The apostles asked the BEING OF LIGHT:

Teach us where you are. Is it necessary that we looking for you?

CHRIST said:

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

There is light within a man of light, and illuminates the world. If it does not illuminate, regardless of darkness.

Peace to you, my peace is born and fulfilled in you. Make sure that no one misleads you, saying:

Behold, here, because it is inside of you what the son of man. Go to him. Those who seek, find it.

The response of the being of light the question by the apostles, seems at once clear, obvious and disconcerting as impenetrable at first sight. But it allows the apostles and of course the men to finally know how to find God.

To better understand return on about God, when speaking to Moses and the various prophets. What he told them?

I am the first and last, the beginning and end.

We must understand clearly before me there was nobody, and after me or myself, no one else. I am the one and only true God. The single living being. I am the life, that is why I am the only person to be eternal.

I am the light that enlightens every man. I am EVERYTHING. EVERYTHING came out of me, and everything came to me. Split wood, I'm here. Lift a stone, you will find me there.

With these remarks, said that GOD is not only the source of everything that exists, but being the creator of everything, man, celestial entities, including entities spiritual and material in its diversity, it is also the major component entity at all, since everything in him. It is its essence. By the breath of its vivifying principle, it allows all to live.

At another time, when he revealed to the apostles the hidden mysteries, the being of light revealed to them this:

If someone asks you who your Heavenly Father, answer:

It's a movement, and rest.

Since the beginning, God has continued to say who he is. Ignoring almost all data on both material and spiritual mysteries, the man with great difficulty to understand and therefore can not get a clear picture of reality and of course God, wondering how he is and where find.

What does the being of light, our true Heavenly Father, if it is the only living thing that exists, because before him there was nobody, and apart from him and without him, no one else. IT is indeed the one and only Living God.

Being as we have seen, the only living thing that exists, the divine essence extends to infinity, and contains within it the whole creation.

GOD is in fact the container and the contents of ANY. We live and operate is thanks to him, in him.

It is indeed easy to understand that God penetrates everything, since it is the original material, the mother root, the source material whose roots have enabled BEING OF LIGHT create and compose from it, all that exists, and to put life through the vivifying principle which he is sole possessor.

If the material in its diversity, material and spiritual is the visible God, the latter is driven by the real being of God, whose divine essence is invisible to everyone, even the celestial beings (angels). The latter is the true representation of God, and in which all the principles remain sources including that which characterizes and makes him the only being, the vivifying principle, making GOD the only BEING to possess LIFE.

GOD IS LIFE and it is also the only one that has diffused throughout the kingdom infinity. That is why the being of light told the various prophets and disciples.

I am the way, truth and life. Nobody goes to GOD, by ME.

Look for it first.

To use an illustration, I say:

God is the tree, to which celestial entities and spiritual entities are attached. Without the trunk, branches, (humans) can not live, and can not exist.

Our spiritual essence is derived from the divine essence of God, this is where we are like him. Like the human body at the DNA level and genes, bears the imprint of earthly parents and data relating to the original source material, our divine essence contains in its original core, the spiritual roots of our heavenly Father.

In order to have life in us, the Supreme Being has placed an implant in our spiritual core, a breath of life or spark of life from the womb which is exhilarating performance. This implant called the germ of life allowing us to have life in us, is indeed part of our heavenly Father.

That is why the BEING OF LIGHT can tell the apostles rightly, that remains in each of them, and indeed in every human being. We all have the life that God is sole owner and sole source "by proxy", with the promise of it, if we behave well, to keep it for eternity.

As we have seen, the presence of God in us is more subtle than it seems, and surpasses all understanding. The BEING OF LIGHT, gave the following statement to the apostles:

Believe me, I am in the Father and the Father is in me.

Knowing that God is both spiritual entity MAJOR DIVINE, it is the root of original material, and secondly that whatever exists in the kingdom infinite or infinite view of life, as our binary material universe is part of the whole owes its existence and the life that animates the Supreme Being, since it is the principle component and invigorating.

The components or the various particles that make up matter in its various representations, owe their existence to the spark of life that drive them, which emanate from the divine essence of God, which is the source of herbs, without which nothing may be.

We can truly say that God is everywhere and in everything, as is EVERYTHING. His presence in everything, the spiritual essence of the spiritual entity that we are, gives it the unique ability to know everything, see everything.

Its presence is twofold, it is a share in the matter in all its components, and secondly it is effective in our spiritual essence and is characterized by the source gene or DNA important that our spiritual essence is its existence as exit or created by God, and thanks to which his presence in us is proof.

God told the men:

I am the light and life.

However, he alone has life because life is. This is both the source and the vivifying principle, but also representation, also called light, because it allows one to see, walk, to move easily and safely.

Therefore, nothing in the kingdom infinite, can live and exist if the light source (GOD, OUR FATHER SUPREME) does not live in it.

This source bracing matrix of life is nothing but the divine essence of God, that such effluvia, spreads in all directions across the celestial sphere, and of course remains in the kernel source material in all its diversity and gives it life.

Therefore the being of light told the apostles:

Seek first God in you, because it is there. It is the light that shines in you;

It is written:

The vine planted outside of God, is not quickened. It will be torn from the root, it will perish.

Verily, verily I say unto you, Except a man be borned again he can not see the kingdom of God. If a man is not borned of water and spirit, he can not enter the kingdom of God. That which is borned of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

The crucial phrase, uttered by the BEING OF LIGHT, when one of his trips when he was talking to a crowd in the presence of his disciples from the streamed reveals and highlights light a truth unknown to this day.

Those who listened, amazed and confused by this statement, asked him how he could be returned back into the womb to be born a second time.

The BEING OF LIGHT replied.

Verily, verily, if you are born of water and spirit, you can not enter the kingdom of God. Do not be surprised at what I say. You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes and you hear the noise, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goes. It is with everyone who is born of the spirit.

Off to better understand the mind of the being of light, I will pass on our previous phase incarnation (which I also revealed in my book " God - The Revelation Of The 13th Way's Insider "and take starting point, the birth and the coming of man in this world.

The man, who lived in ignorance for millennia without being transmitted, conveyed and taught data related to truth, reality, and consequently in the existence of the SUPREME BEING, GOD, was in effect, not just maintaining it stuck in the field and obscuring any teaching about the truth.

Thus, focusing on materialism, he gradually forgot why he was on earth, and what led him to identify with its carnal envelope. The man has been so closed to the realities of the real world and its divine origins, living far from God, and cut off from the heavenly kingdom.

Therefore it is not considered as true, only material that can see and touch, and the unreal universe of heaven, much less the infinite kingdom. Its scope, its visual space, his sense of analysis, understanding, and reflection has shrunk considerably.

It is therefore, like a child's brain prior knowledge related to truth, and therefore much to learn. The man assumed, living in the material universe binary that is his only reality, he comes into the world through his parents, but there was before. For him, the beginning of life, the beginning of his existence on earth.

It has overshadowed the prenatal portion, arguing that it never existed. For him, entry into this world of men marks the beginning of his life, his existence, its reality, because it can not be otherwise.

How in these conditions, understanding the discourses of the being of light, when he speaks of the necessity of being born again. The difficulty encountered by Christ at that time, was to teach men without knowing the truth by teaching them new information, real, to help them gradually out of ignorance, and the state apoplexy in which they were.

The task of the being of light was therefore immense and tedious as it was for him not only to reveal the one and only true God to men, making it known, they learn who they really are, tell them why they are on earth, for what purpose, how to get out, and constructive transmit data to their hi but also bring them to comply for their own development, while showing them the pitfalls to avoid, if will not succumb and locked in darkness. It was also the Christ, to reveal the hidden mysteries, and recall the promises of God.

You see my friends, this is certainly not by chance that the being of light had said:

That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Contrary to what some current vehicle philosophical or spiritual man is a trilogy. It has of a human body part, whose elements are derived from the matter composing the planet earth and the universe-bit hardware when it evolves, and secondly, an etheric body that links the spiritual the physical body and the spiritual entity of which we are representing.

That is why it is written:

The carnal envelope serves the spiritual entity, because it is the spirit that gives life.

Given what has been said, the man understands better then the reality about him, and knows now he is a spiritual entity incarnate came on earth to perfect his spiritual education, learning lessons varied and diverse , to bring to purify its spiritual condition cine qua non major, if he wants to enter the heavenly world and remain there forever. Also, in order to evolve in the material universe that bit where he finds God has given him a carnal envelope, which serves as a vehicle or clothing that has shaped specifically for the spiritual being who has .

It's about the human body that God has said:

You are dust, and you will return to dust.

At the end of its cycle of earthly life, at the time known only to God, the spark of life whose time expires, will be removed from the carnal envelope by celestial beings, whose mission is, among other and the latter died.

The spiritual entity therefore has no choice but to leave this dead body, and then finds the other side of "WALL" and in between that man calls awkwardly I 'BEYOND, which is nothing but the spiritual reality. The spiritual being having left the human world is reborn again in a spiritual world that had left before they incarnate on earth. It enters therefore in its true form, whose spiritual essence is derived from God, and led by Him in His image.

That is why the BEING OF LIGHT said:

Verily, verily I say unto you, except a man be born again he can not see the kingdom of God. If a man be born of water and spirit, he can not enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

These words are clear, and crucial, because they highlight two fundamental facts.

The first concerns the cinema qua non condition, allowing the spiritual entity having access to the heavenly universe, and thus enter the house of the Supreme Being.

The second allows us to understand that only the spiritual entity, a spiritual being created in the image of God, to access the infinite kingdom.

Consider again my friends, about what the man really.

You know now, that man is a trilogy, and is composed as follows:

It is primarily composed of a fleshly envelope, or clothing as pointing to Christ, created by God from elements of the field from the earth, which is made to serve the spiritual entity, in order to allow to move first to evolve in the material universe binary where it is located.

Secondly an etheric body, consisting of dual elements, from both the material and spiritual matter particles and those from the spiritual essence, whose function is to connect the spiritual entity with its envelope carnal. Without this etheric body, it would be impossible for the spiritual welfare of this move and live in the binary material world where he lives, because the composition of its spiritual essence is such that he would cross a natural area.

Third of ourselves, spiritual entity, our true being, our real essence, what we really are. We have been created or creates as you want, by the Supreme Being, from the elements strains divine spiritual essence, identical to him or his likeness. That is why the being of light told the apostles, they are from God. Hence the expression of Christ:

This comes from the spirit is spirit.

We are all spirits (spiritual entity) set up and led by God.

This bracket allows man to understand that it must of course take good care of his outward man, he shall in no way identify with it nor give it significance beyond measure, and certainly not as does so by mistake or ignorance to the detriment of his innermost being, that is to say, its spiritual essence which is his true being.

Once you understand all this, Christ's words above, becoming lighter and take on another dimension, and you can understand. You now know that at the end of your earthly life, the spark of life that has been placed in the human body formation in the womb of the mother by the celestial beings, be removed from the latter, which from that moment is decompose and return to dust. And you, spiritual entity, then you take the time after leaving your body lifeless aware of your reality.

You enter the real spiritual world, and will know that everything God said was true. But that is only the first phase.

The path you take then, is based on acts that you have made on earth, good or evil. As I have revealed, the man is on by accident, but to learn new lessons, reject the evil in all its forms. It must not only monitor and enforce the laws and precepts of God, imitate doing good, but also and especially by rejecting materialism, envy, desire, lust, and then penetrating pain, suffering, misery, by destroying, reaching the final stage consists in purifying the spiritual essence.

Using running water saving and what the word of God, recovery, taught and revealed to men by the being of light, purify you, keeping you in a river of living water. The water of baptism purifies your carnal envelope, the white water of the Word of God, cleanses your spiritual essence, as long as you keep in you, and you put it into practice in order to remain holy, without spot.

This is born of water, symbolized by the saving word of God is purity.

No one can enter the heavenly world, in the house of God, if he has not done all that. The spiritual world of heaven, being pure and holy, no one can enter unless he is born of water, if it does not wash prior to its spiritual essence, and being aware of its reality, the entity spiritual.

Search all GOD above all, for he alone saves and gives life eternal.

The BEING OF LIGHT said:

Verily, verily I say unto you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me to eternal life and not come into condemnation but is passed from death to life.

It is written:

Men do not always know who they are, where they come from, where they go and ignore what they do and what will be the worlds to come. They darkness to light. They have been misled.

While they were living in destitution intellectual, moral, mental and spiritual all, they were plunged into darkness of obscurantism, GOD noticed among the men, Moses, one of them, wanting to find the LORD, to desire to know the truth, wish to get answers to existential questions, to enter the spiritual mysteries, but also to find and meet God.

His desire to learn more about the Supreme Being was such that he made every effort to seek, find, and finally listen and serve.

Moses was the first who gave BEING OF LIGHT bases of knowledge, as divine teaching including the precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments, divine guidance, whose obvious aim was to help Men out of the blindness and spiritual ignorance. These divine rules, dictating the lives of men then living in total anarchy without rules or laws fair, and fell slaves living under the yoke of despots and power-hungry monsters.

They finally offered their sound fundamentals, fair and strong, they needed so that everyone, at all levels of society to submit them, respect them, apply them, fixing each line of safe driving, footprint justice, fairness, kindness, empathy, mutual respect.

Education linked to the truth when they were delivered, so they move with confidence towards the light.

God then asked Moses to set each member of the community, King, chief of tribe, religious prescriptions which they had to constantly refer faithfully for the good of all. The precepts, laws and ordinances, controls for last, since they do not suffer from adding arbitrary dirigiste human traditions, offering men the opportunity to rise spiritually and leave without fear, world of darkness and finally see the truth.

There is nothing worse than to see, while God of love for men, wishing them together, guide them, as leaders including religious, while their mission is to transmit the teaching of God faithfully, guide advice men, without omitting or concealing anything, or convert the word of the LORD, divert men from the right path, and communicate knowledge truncated amend at leisure, often through ignorance or for warlike reasons, the divine words.

The lie that men transmit them, lose them, take them away from God, to mislead, and sink further into darkness.

Understand the difference and recognize the worthy religious servant of God, the religious and unjust servant of the devil. We still see them, which divert the divine word, changing the meaning of true about God, and lead men by lies disaster. These religious leaders and terrorists are easily identifiable. Not only do they not know God, Nor have entered the senses and the borne of his deep learning, but about their impressions of hatred, filled with aggression, brandishing a weapon in hand, they say the men falsely take up arms to shed blood in the name of God, adding that those who execute their designs, go to paradise and be martyred.

Verily I say unto you, all this is false. GOD this relate to which these agents of Satan, is none other than the devil. As for the one who will commit a terrorist attack and then shed the blood of innocents, not only do they never go to heaven, but they are all holed up and sent to the world of darkness, where they will find Satan.

In truth, my friends, I tell you, these religious leaders and terrorists unfair, are already dead.

From them the BEING OF LIGHT said:

Woe to you, because you are tombs indicates that nothing, and men walk over without seeing them.

No one can enter the celestial universe, whether to shed blood.

It is time to get away from these religious unfair because they serve the prince of evil. These monks lead people into error, by making them a path that distance them from God, and contain hopelessly in the dark.

Obviously, if I ask you to distance yourself from these disgraceful and religious leaders of terrorist groups, who do not know the LORD, because your side, you should be able to detect them in the words Satan, in with hate and aggression are pronounced and deviates from the righteous path. You, you, too, a large share of responsibility because you blindly follow by practicing their Satanic works. In this, you also do any of the word of God, since you would also turn you back by the evil you commit.

If you do not react by pushing the full religious hatred, if you do not deviate from these terrorist leaders, those decision makers who lead you to do evil to you telling you please, pretending that nothing else n 'exists, you away from God, you will inevitably plunge into the dark, closing your mind, your intellect to all actions and in truth. You lose the sense of analysis, understanding, remains a slave to materialism in which you are now deeply mired. You will be unable to distinguish between real and unreal, truth from falsehood, good from evil, right and wrong, the pure from the impure. You become blind and deaf to the spiritual plane, malice darken your trial. You enter materialism, and seeking ways unbridled earthly pleasures, the indifference unconscious search of profit and power, his heart full of hatred, aggression, violence, indifference, which is the opposite of what God desires and hopes of men.

Indeed, man is to some extent, as the drunk, who knows where to go, what direction to take, unable to reason, since his mind and intellect are misty, having lost all benchmarks.

This man, my friends, despite living in the world of men among them, died.

Therefore, you will be unable to perceive the truth to penetrate and understand the word of God. The gateway to heaven (the celestial world) will be closed. You condemn yourself. You scatter, while the BEING OF LIGHT wants to collect. You're away from God, then you call it. You-you divide, thus driving the hatred, violence, wickedness among you, then you learn that God's goodness, love, justice, peace.

For the wickedness of which you are carrying, you create sin, ignoring the effects it produces, which incidentally you do not know life. You are responsible and the origin of evil and suffering suffered by the poor and destitute, while God teaches kindness, compassion, humility, magnanimity, affinity, gentleness of soul, sharing, covering you with his love.

You have hardened your heart, what makes you numb, you could not hear and see God, speaking truth to the traditions and practices from Satan and men, rather than just saving tips and laws of the BEING OF LIGHT .

By letting go of materialism and what he creates as pernicious, you cut your real self, forgetting your reality, that of spiritual entity, taking your body for what it is, that is to say, identifying yourself to him.

It is by posting the rejection of evil in all its forms, compliance and enforcement of the precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments of God, in a rustic existence pure and unblemished, we can wash our spiritual essence, and that we shall obtain salvation as our heavenly Father hope.

Open yourself to God, repent, if you do not remain in darkness. You can follow GOD, go back where you come, you who are from IT.

For decades, the man trying to get answers to questions concerning, for its existence, namely:

Who are we?

Where we come from?

Why are we above ground?

Where will we go after death?

Who are we?

As we have seen, besides materialism, Machiavellian works of man, led him to create waves or negative masses which lead him to identify with its carnal envelope, isolating his mind and his intellect, and small little, from generation to generation to forget his real self, retransmitting the gap to its descendants.

We are, as I happen to get the show, spiritual entities.

It is written:

And God said:

Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. God created man in his image, he created the image of God.

God is the MAJOR SPIRITUAL BEING; he created man, spiritual entity, whose spiritual essence is identical to his. It uses the principle source of his divine essence.

Here is the true origin of man, which comes from the divine essence most of the being of light, also called Holy Spirit.

It should be understood that from the beginning, projects or designs of God, creating all that IS was not inking, goodness, kindness, love, justice, affinity, well being, joy, happiness in the absolute serenity, which is itself the root source.

Adam and Eve, following the establishment of celestial beings, is no exception to the rule and should follow expectancy of BEING OF LIGHT, respect and apply the same rules, attitudes and behaviors that they, they unfortunately did not do.

You've seen yet, from the beginning, God has acted as a loving Father, mindful of the welfare of his children, carers and helping them with education and support mawkish.

GOD has taken steps to help spiritual and celestial beings, to behave, to act, to reason by divine law, which is under the base. He did the same with Adam and Eve, then us.

This is a result of their disobedience, their irresponsible, disrespectful and arrogant, that BEING OF LIGHT placed them in the universe, governed by the material, and in this respect, granted them so they can live a fleshly envelope using for this, elements and particles composing the material universe binary, and more particularly, the planet earth where they were moving now. To this fleshly envelope is alive and therefore useful in the spiritual entity who holds and the total seizure, GOD placed within it a spark of life.

It is written on this subject:

God formed man (the body) of the dust of the earth and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man became a living soul (a living carnal envelope).

Where we come from?

The spiritual essence of man, spiritual entity of choice, comes as we have seen, the divine essence of God, and as such, originally lived in the celestial universe, which is Indeed, the major real universe, whose BEING OF LIGHT is the source element composer, as is done in the container and the contents of ANY.

Therefore, verily I say unto you, before you incarnated on earth, the spiritual entity and still lives in the spiritual world, where she received advice and guidance relevant to it by the celestial beings, whose mission in this regard is to accompany the upcoming incarnation process. As did the rest with God our first parents.

This approach is to give from celestial beings to spiritual beings, and all data elements specific to the divine teaching to help them succeed in their earthly future. The spiritual entities are therefore informed and know in advance why they have incarnated on earth, and why.

Did not GOD say:

To those who succeed, I promise rest and eternal life.

Why are we here?

Can live and enter the heavenly world, that spiritual and celestial bodies, having made them, and fully endorsed and obviously understood the philosophy of God, based on the property and the total rejection of evil in all its shapes.

No one can enter the celestial universe, if it failed to apply to assimilate and to penetrate the divine teaching, then imitating the being of light, reaching the state of holiness.

By placing them on land, BEING OF LIGHT wanted to some extent, isolate them from the foul Satan, but also offer them a second chance to learn and assimilate the education that they already dispensed so they progress in wisdom and humility.

Here, the main reasons why we are on earth, which is a sort of school wide before us to achieve perfection, by purifying our spiritual essence, through various events encountered throughout our earthly journey.

Our presence on earth as you know now is certainly not accidental, since it has been planned in advance by the celestial beings, with our total support and our approval regarding the conditions and location. If we have no memory of our reality of spiritual entity, we are the only ones responsible.

By digging into materialism, we cut ourselves off from reality, truth, and we further isolate the real spiritual world, and of course GOD.

Some data retain the spiritual entity on earth, and takes her to continually want to be reincarnated. The negative masses generated by evil, spiritual entity stuck in a matrix so thick, it is as blind and not know where she is. This state leads in spite of her, to seek a way out she can not see, and holds a prisoner of the area where she carried out her evil, so it stays there.

His attachment to materialism and what it arouses interest as pernicious and perverse, and of course his ignorance of data relating to the truth leads him to indulge weakness and easy, ephemeral pleasures and obscuring effects induced .

The spiritual entity created by its activities free of rationality, logic, online driving director of real purpose, waves and negative masses that obscure his sense of trial, analysis, understanding, reflection, and retreats in the area, sclerosing his mind and his intellect. It's even worse if it engages and follows the forces of evil.

Therefore, she no longer knows who she really is, where it comes, does not know its origins more, know where she is and consider the real and the only existing space in which it operates. She wanders from that moment without purpose, and builds an environment and a fictional universe.

In sum, it has lost all bearings. Unable to reason with objectivity, knowledge is limited to very little, the life she leads is at this moment an enormous magnitude, and remains the only worth, hence the incessant desire to return to earth and / or stay. It must be said that the land remains as a consequence, his only reality, and the only place she knows.

His knowledge of the being of light or just the truth being known him, leads him to seek and return to the only place that it is for the sole reality.

God loves man more than he imagined. By putting on the ground, he tried to help her learn the essentials to bring to the purification of its spiritual essence.

It is the purpose that God assigned to man.

This, along with Adam and Eve, unable to learn by kindness, must unfortunately for him, follow a path strewn with obstacles to its essential spiritual evolution. But what on earth is the spiritual entity that can penetrate the divine truth to verify the accuracy and quintessence, and the teaching of God received, how to behave, what to do or not how to purify it to its essence spiritual cinema qua non condition, giving access to the universe-heavenly to find, and of course meet with the Holy Spirit.

This result is of course subject to actions or works done on earth. One element exacerbating the failure of man, yours is the fact that he frequently leaves affected, go to the facility to idleness, laziness, rather than trying to be as active, this which necessarily involves him in a slowdown of its faculties of thought, trial and clouded his mind and his intellect. To enable us to succeed our land journey, God gave us and transmitted by Moses, the precepts, laws and ordinances, the divine commandments.

By his example he shows us the path to the light, explaining how we get our earthly life. Only goodness, kindness, love of others is to say men our brothers, justice, equity, peace, rejection of evil in all its forms, materialism, can help the spiritual entity to emerge from the abyss in which it is confined. The result was the purification of his spiritual essence, to its emergence from matter by reaching a state of arousal.

Rather than give as does the blind man's credit to the words of men assuming arbitrarily usurped titles, such as those of religious or spiritual guides they have the armor and not the soul, listen the being of light, follow his advice, respect and apply its guidelines, follow his ways safe and example, to walk confidently on the path to IT. His word is really a live food, a drink composed and whose result is eternal life.

His word is life and light.

His speech is a river of living water.

Religions, although built on the same basis, the same foundation that is to say, the unique word of God, are made by men who have introduced additions or deviations, in order to lose men, and push against each other, but also by the question raised by the texts amending the divine word, to deviate, and therefore away from GOD.

As such it is inconceivable that men listen and refer to the words of these terrorist leaders and religious unfair, rather than take such solid support, teaching life-giving God.

For God, religions exist not because they all disappear before HIM.

Listen to BEING OF LIGHT, follow him, for he alone is the light fair and safe, the truth and the life.

So my friends say no more:

Religion says that...

Say instead:

God said that ... (what we do and how we should behave and lead us)

The end of human existence of the spiritual entity, occurs when the spark of life now lives in the human body is removed. The spiritual being that stayed until then had no choice but to leave and go to the spiritual world, more exactly in the transition zone, where the celestial beings host.

Where will we go after death?

I will first time to reveal this truth.

The spiritual beings during their earthly living in a fleshly envelope with blindness, and / or deafness, death of the last overlay automatically detaching itself, use all their senses. They therefore find themselves in the spiritual world in their true form, that of spiritual entity, whose essence with God, may not suffer in this space, anything of that nature.

It is written:

On that day, the deaf hear the words of the book, and delivered from darkness and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.

Leaving our fleshly envelope lifeless, the elements which composed by degrading dust return to earth, we find ourselves in the spiritual world, and more exactly, as I said above, in an area called (by me) "transition zone", because we will remain there for long.

That is, that converge all spiritual entities from leaving their bodies, and that whatever the country. If the man for the earth is divided into continents, the latter country, for God and the celestial beings who assist the planet earth is one vast and immense country, and men, whatever their skin color, all brothers and belonging to one family.

For this reason, all spiritual beings who have just left the world of men, and that, whatever the terrestrial region, arriving in the spiritual zone, where they are received by the celestial beings, with great courtesy and kindness, and where they will be oriented according to their behavior in the material world of men, in a specific region.

There are indeed three main ways of orientation.

The first and most important because most rewarding in terms of spiritual elevation, it is that the BEING OF LIGHT wishes for spiritual beings we are, is the path that leads directly into the holy heavenly universe and that allows for as God promised, eternal rest.

It is written:

He who walks in righteousness, and speaks with justice, who despises gain acquired by extortion, shaking hands not to accept a present, which closes the ear does not hear about bloodthirsty, and that band eyes not to see the evil that dwells there in high places. Rocks are fortified his retirement, he will be given bread, water will be provided to him, and he will never hunger or thirst.

Your eyes will see the king (God), in its magnificence. They contemplate the country throughout his view. This is really the LORD is great for us. We take the place of rivers, large rivers that do not get no ships with oars, and not through any great vessel. For the LORD is our Judge, our Lawgiver, our King. He saves us.

The heavenly universe just as you see, is dedicated to all spiritual beings who sought God, walked with him and of course found. They then receive the promised rest, and eternal life with God.

The second is taken by the spiritual entities who failed their earthly journey, having had attitudes and irresponsible behaviors that ignorance of the true self leads naturally to commit. They unfortunately for them, kept in their mind and intellect, false data accumulated from generation to generation, as "power thinking" or "thought implant", which encrusted and take them not only to ignore the truth, their true self, not to recognize or believe in God, but also to consider the earthly life as the only viable, what gives with this aspiration as they do not know the phases and the ephemeral range.

At this stage, loss of contact with our state of spiritual entity led it to confuse his life in his outward man, his mind, his intellect and his real self. In reality for this man, all this does not exist apart from the human body which he identifies.

The effects induced by the negative actions footprints materialism and wickedness, leave traces in the mind and intellect, which pushes the spiritual entity to incarnate tirelessly to ignore his real being and the truth revealed by God.

Unable to enter the spiritual heavenly saint whose access is forbidden, they are confined in spaces provided for that purpose under the responsibility of celestial beings. These host, then the guide in spiritual areas or specific regions, depending of course of action on the ground, and the degree of spiritual elevation of each newcomer.

The celestial beings are responsible, and allow them to rest time they want to forget a difficult time periods spent on land. They are then aware of the reality, and complain how they behaved, and they completed their earthly existence. The fiasco that follows them is simply intolerable.

The celestial beings surround with love, kindness and a lot of dedication, just transmitting data in the form of advice, have attitude, respect for divine laws, they must continually take into account, particularly when they depart on earth so this time succeed in their earthly existence, why knowing when they return.

The celestial beings with their agreement choose the region, the country where they will be reincarnated, and their future parent land, and social environment conducive to a perfect spiritual success. This position overall is essential for the spiritual entity, if it is to have all data available, the social climate and environment, the ideal geographical area, this time he will learn useful lessons to overcome the pitfalls (eg as regards those on earth were racist) that will provide the last opportunity to purify their spiritual essence, and extinguish the waking state, in order to access this time the celestial universe saint.

One of the difficulties encountered by the celestial beings, lies in the fact that certain spiritual beings having left the earth the death of their body, arrived in the transition area so spiritual charge of negative masses, that they act on their mind and intellect, such parasites, which have the effect of diminishing their judgments, and do not allow them to immediately understand where they are. They then need a longer or shorter, to get used to this new reality, and finally take conscious of where they are located, and the new form that is theirs.

The celestial beings therefore need help in ridding them of false data accumulated on land, in communicating their new knowledge just by explaining where they are, and they must do for their salvation.

They will remain in the spiritual world the time they want, receiving helpful hints and wise of heavenly beings who play as you see now crucial. That is why I also called the assistants to God, because they are involved in all areas.

The third track is reserved for the spiritual entities that have done evil, paid blood for example, and caused much suffering. It is where will inevitably terrorist leaders and religious iniquitous leading men in the darkness, and the leaders during their tenure, showed cruelty.

They are directed towards the world of darkness, created for Satan and his demons.

It is written:

The LORD will punish the army of heaven above and on earth the kings of the earth. They will be assembled captive in a prison, they will be locked in dungeons, and after many days they will be punished.

Outside are dogs, sorcerers, fornicators, murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loves you practice falsehood. I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Thus said the ETERNAL GOD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the spirit of man within him.

I'm alive. What I want is not that the wicked die, it changes it ways and live. Come back, come back from your evil ways, and why will ye die?

The righteousness of the righteous will not save the day of his transgression, and the wicked will not fall by his own wickedness on the day he turns away.

As the just can not live by his righteousness on the day of his transgression. When I say exactly he lives, he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, all his righteousness will be forgotten, and he has died because of iniquity he committed.

When I say to the wicked:

You will die if he returns from his sin, and practice righteousness and justice, he makes a pledge, if he restores what he pleased, if he follows the precepts that give life, without committing the iniquity, he shall surely live, he shall not die. All he has committed sins will be forgotten. If practice righteousness and justice, he will live.

Here is what BEING OF LIGHT asks us:

What God asks of you, but to do justice and to love mercy and to walk humbly with Him.

Here's what you should do:

Let everyone speak the truth with his neighbor. Imagine your doors according to the truth and for peace. Let no one in his heart does not think evil against his neighbor, and do not like the false oath, for these are all things that I hate.

I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. I am come a light into this world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

Not the hand of God is too short to save nor his ear too dull to hear. But your iniquities have separated between you and your GOD. Your sins have hidden his face, and prevents you from listening. For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with iniquity, your lips have spoken lies, your tongue is heard iniquity. Your feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, desolation and destruction are in their way. They do not know the path of peace, and there is no justice in their paths. They take circuitous path.

Our sins are many, and our sins testify against us. We utter violence and rebellion, designed and meditated in the heart words of falsehood, and the issue was withdrawn, and he stands away. The man does what is evil in my eyes, and chose what displeases me.

Hear the word of GOD.

Turn to me and you will be saved. Seek the LORD while he lies. Call upon him while he is near.

Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts. He returns to the LORD, who will take pity on him, our God, who never tires of forgiving. Observe what is right and practice what is right because my he not long in coming, and my righteousness to appear.

Blessed is the man who will do this, and the son of man who will remain firm.

While he transmitted data on terrestrial and celestial mysteries to the apostles, the BEING OF LIGHT explained this:

What goes in your mouth can not defile you, but what comes out of your mouth, that's what can pollute you.

In other words, all the negative words, disabling, hurtful, harmful, perverse, bellicose, hate impressions, conveying indifference, contempt, rejecting the next, cruelty, injustice, cynicism, designed to limit or counter to freedom and free choices of others, to force anyone to work against his will, or lead to harm by spreading false philosophies as from lying, from the heart and express the personality of the deep author, his real background, his feelings, emotions, and reveal a limited intellect to content.

They are destructive in these cases, as responsible for negative masses, and lead inexorably to destruction.

The heart here is the expression of affect, but is also an expression reflecting generally follow the thought that she played.

Some assume that thought is an activity of the cerebral cortex, from which emerges a set of principles such as reflection, understanding, analysis, memory, ability to undertake so. And remains in the body humans where it is headquartered.

In fact it is nothing.

Now you know my friends, we are all spiritual beings and that our carnal envelope is nothing but a dress that we invested in order to evolve in this world ruled by matter.

Therefore, if the brain of our fleshly envelope plays the role of catalyst, receiver, dispatcher, controller data to which converge and leave the flow signals and conveying information from a variety of different organs and body cells humans, it is by no means in case the seat of memory, intelligence, for the mind and intellect that are in truth the essence of the spiritual entity.

Hence the difference that distinguishes man from animals.

All data (names of objects, people, things, messages and various lessons, the information of all kinds, everything that is related to knowledge, knowledge, various experiences, etc..) Captured and stored, rows are then stored in our mind. They are extracted by the intellect, which send them as waves towards the human brain including the diencephalon, which plays here the role of mediator and distributor, and direct them towards the vocal cords (when he is expressing a thought) when they are translated or converted into sounds, and expelled through the mouth, becoming a series of words, which are following the case, waves or masses positive or negative.

The control and domination exercised by the spiritual entity on its body, is through the diencephalon mainly the latter playing well in the brain, the role of central control of the human body, and continues to be made, to spiritual entity, a key focal point. He ensures the proper functioning of the carnal envelope, controlling, distributing, controlling, distributing, performing all streams and information circulating, and coming from the whole body.

So thanks to the diencephalon among other things, that the spiritual entity can fully control his carnal envelope.

For the record, I would say that the diencephalon is the brain area at the base of it, and it is near the third ventricle. It is home to many centers of vegetative life and psyche, and is the crossing point of the nerve pathways from cerebral cortex to the posterior brain, and vice versa.

For this reason, the spiritual entity, to control his carnal envelope, and use it properly, control the brain motor center of the human body and is particularly through the diencephalon.

Being spiritual can naturally keep all data in its internal memory, in this case, still using the intellect, he extracted from his mind, and keeps them in his memory source, residing in the ME major.

To use simple language, I would say that the external form of the spiritual entity known to man, since the latter is called imperfectly, AME. The mind, even to use the language of men, is against the inner part, containing the main essence of the spiritual entity includes within it also the mind and intellect, the active and the source of active 'be.

The essence of the spiritual entity has within it the source or the central tenet of his ME major, whose nucleus has the acting and active divine memory, and the seed of life.

There also is the seat of consciousness, intelligence, trial, creativity, knowledge, knowledge, morality, goodness, justice, love, are, all principles from God, and of course, the active source which has within it, from the divine principle of the divine nature of the being of light.

Hence, that leave the critical data and guidelines. The kernel source is there.

To be active, spiritual entity uses the intellect as a means acting, which contains within it the kernel by connecting major acting, the principle of intelligence, understanding, understanding of design. This last as I just pointed out, is connected to mind control and that he is an extension.

If the mind has all the data assimilated by the spiritual entity, and good or bad, fair and / or unjust, useful or useless it may be under the influence of positive or negative effects of the latter.

Indeed, the data can be positively or negatively charged. In the latter case, they can disrupt the spiritual entity, since they are the appearance of an implant force negative thinking.

An implant force thought is a kind of interventionist thinking, (such an order that the subject is obliged to perform. Done this, do not do that, it is forbidden to ..., do not disturb People must go blow for blow, we are superior to other races etc..) charged negatively or positively influencing the behavior of man, leading him to act against his will.

For negative data or implant strength negative thought, I mean those that emanate from evil, express, define it.

Since the spiritual entity does not seek to remove them from his mind, destroying them by example, or by narrowing or simply removing their negative charge through the intellect, they will inevitably cause negative effects disastrous to term disruption will be spiritual crippling parasite and its sense of trial, analysis, understanding, creating whatever happens, interference in his mind, which will lead him to be inconsistent behavior in hold about the same, or have an aggressive attitude.

The spiritual entity, therefore, loses its bearings, his sense of subjective and objective reasoning, justice and righteousness have more meaning and reality for her and the goodness and love. She retreats into the dark, and has to behave iniquitous stamp of nihilism, inconstancy. It will then be locked in a straitjacket, from which it can emerge only after considerable difficulty.

Since the data are extracted from the mental, and transferred by the intellect in the human brain, they just get added to the elements and sources, including those that affect human behavior and the negative impulses stored and created by the human body (sexual impulses, needs associated with various addictions such as drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, drugs consumed through twists and so on.,). At this stage, the spiritual body gradually loses all notions of reality, no longer has control or the control itself, forget the reality of his inner self, and is carried away by materialism while subject to various mental illnesses, which was contained in itself, totally blind, and has disconnected from its fleshly envelope.

The negative effects of thought, from the same data, combined with the impulses of the carnal envelope, infect his innermost being and leads him to behave in a disorderly, aggressive and violent, unjust, disastrous for itself and well course for the people she rubs, focusing on the evil that impede spiritual development and the cup of reality.

Good or bad, thinking that is the translation in waveform data originates or seat in the mind of the spiritual entity, and not in the human brain, as it is imagined . It expresses the feelings, intentions, desires, wishes, thoughts, opinions, judgments, beliefs, ideas, projects, ideas, experiences, etc. forms.

The thought also means either all the facts, (action, event, certainty) on the psyche (on the spiritual entity) is only the intellectual life of the latter. It marks as such, the specificity of human versus animal, which I shall call again, has an empty envelope of flesh is to say without a soul, unlike a commonly held belief.

Broadly, the thought is all the facts or effects induced by the stored data and stored in the mind of the spiritual entity, and is the result. As long as it remains in the psyche or mind of the spiritual entity, it is known that the latter exclusively, cons, when it is translated and expressed as extracted from the mind and being expelled by the mouth in the form of speech by humans, it is therefore known to all who hear.

The thought is rooted in the mind of the spiritual entity, and is either objective or subjective. If the mind is in some way, the storage location of data stored, the intellect which is close and connected, works independently, is the seat of the intellect as itself remains connected to the source principle. He allows the spiritual entity, making the sorts of data stored in the mind to recognize what is good what is not, understand what is right or wrong, just that which is not to act and behave correctly or not, self-control, to differentiate between truth and falsehood, and make the right decisions.

The intellect to grip and control the mind, insofar as the spiritual entity control its essence through his inner reality and not remain the slave of matter, that is to say effects induced by negative masses stored in its fleshly envelope, and expressed as impulses or reckless acts.

Intellect reply somehow intelligence source that it is in fact the extension is the principle employed by the spiritual entity, to be acting.

If we enter a moment of spiritual being that we are, we will see that initially our mind was blank data related to knowledge, knowledge, devoid of intelligence and wisdom. The BEING OF LIGHT helped us through a number of parameters. The existence and possible remedy is through our journey of life on Earth, collecting data of all kinds, good and bad, including the need for our spiritual development is evident and obvious. Ultimately, analyzing them, we can draw the essence and power by a perfect understanding, to discover what they contain, aided by the ways and laws of God. We can then separate them, oppose them, dissect them, analyze them and say well what is good what is not.

We retain all the knowledge in our minds, and that's where our thoughts go, which are the product of the combined mass of data collected, which allows us the ability we have to analyze, understand, compare them, express them, transforming them as idea, thought, intention, intuition, feeling, education etc..

Are also stored in our mental, spiritual huge super computer, all data on our experiences, both good and bad, and those that allow us to measure the harmful effects or not, relevant or not, fair or not, contain them or not, and the rules and just laws that govern them and rely on us by God through our intellect, to annihilate them if necessary, since they are harmful and destructive.

It is a fundamental truth to penetrate.

God, the being of light, we all create, I prefer begotten, spiritual entity basically good by nature, and gave us from the beginning, freedom and choice. It has placed within our core source of our spiritual essence, the divine principle from its divine essence, giving us, in our genes sources, data on the kindness, love, which are also stored in our mental.

If God has created man in His own image, to understand him as a spiritual entity, one thing is sure, he wanted from the beginning to grant the same grounds as he. Is not this a beautiful proof of love?

That is why from its inception, or rather its spiritual birth, the BEING OF LIGHT hoped that the man with his spiritual divine origin, has a substantive right, just and right, and as his heavenly Father, it is a being of love.

So God created man, spiritual entity basically good by nature, giving him as his spiritual birth, the germ kernel which has served to train himself from the divine essence of the being of light, the source memory carrier of the true nature of God, the ability to understand, analyze, reflect, think, begin to love. The intelligence that God has provided, must bring forward by the education received from the celestial world and provided by the being of light itself and the celestial beings (angels) to develop oneself intellectual and spiritual.

By giving all these human faculties, God wanted to show him all the love he bears, the attention that it manifests, and the designs of his love to trace him.

In generating the spiritual being that we, along with celestial beings, angels, the being of light has nourished the hope that they all like him.

Well, just, right, merciful, kind, friendly, simple, humble, compassionate, and they act so naturally.

This information or data source, allows us the analysis and understanding that we have data stored in our minds and our interest in identifying what is good what is not, making a sort of wise and strengthen our ME real model for taking our heavenly father.

The man, vanity, pride, ignorance, do not want advice and guidance of the being of light, creating in him the sin (the latter is somehow an implant strength load negative thoughts, that affects not only the mind but also bypasses the intellect) said in his mental strength implant negative thought, who creates interference, disturbs, blurring all data stored, preventing therefore it does not control, to make a wise and salutary sorts.

On the other hand, the implant power negative thinking, remains active as a spiritual entity does not annihilate, through precepts, laws and ordinances, the commandments of God, whose solid base comes from the divine nature of the being of light, which is nothing but goodness, love, compassion, humility, justice and peace.

It points by inking divine cited above, by the just God that gives advice to men, that they can reach to reject evil in all its forms, destroy and annihilate these implants force negative thinking that make slaves of them, detain prisoners of materialism, preventing them from seeing the truth.

These implants strong negative thinking, frequently arise in the mind of the spiritual entity, and through the intellect assigned, transferred into the human brain, blinding him, leading him to behave and contentious acts, disorderly, wicked, obscuring his view of the trial, his sense of analysis and understanding. The actions of man are full of violence, hatred.

This man therefore, loses all self control and held inconsistent reasoning. It happens frequently, be incapable of making fair decisions for him, leading him to wander endlessly.

However, it is very important, for the good advice of God, create in our mind, our intellect, in whom we have previously placed the data from kernel divine source of our inner self, in which our Heavenly Father has placed the divine seed from its own nature, a force of positive thinking, whose role from our real self, succeed in annihilating the implant power negative thinking, and thus control the flow of data stored and thoughts they express, at their transfer to the human brain, but also in the mind of our spiritual essence.

God has given to men, this unique and rare ability to be free and have free choice and free will. Therefore, much of this ability, they can make the difference between good and evil, right and wrong, since they do not leave overwhelmed by the ideas and thoughts pernicious and destructive, that they were created by sin, and placed in their mind, and who remain active. Eventually, they will make them slaves, dependent and subject to them, and they will be extremely difficult to discard.

The thought, the result of data stored, allowing the spiritual entity, to detect in the words of the perverse and unjust, a lie he expresses and diffuse, or underlying calculation.

It allows information from stored in our mind, think, think, understand, act. In any case, we should not be overwhelmed by it.

From the moment we know that thought as the rest is word of a wave with mass, since it is negative, produces disastrous both for the people we meet, for ourselves. These waves or negative masses, invade and disturb our mind and our mind feels as such find it difficult to perform sorts. Since by that we can not control them, the interference grows, disturbs the intellect, and affects our spiritual essence, short-circuiting our whole being.

This is what we see, among men he is said to have lost his mind. It is therefore at this level, a sort of disconnect between the spiritual essence of the subject (which is itself seriously affected, see Satan and his demons) and its carnal envelope.

Also to allow the spiritual entity to ensure optimum control and a complete and total domination on his fleshly envelope, it is essential and it consumes most healthy foods and avoid all dangerous products such as drugs, smoking, alcohol, etc., which can cause interference and prevent the proper functioning of the body. It is important that nothing interferes in the functioning of the carnal envelope, so that the spiritual entity can use it properly.

For this reason, God had given such advice to men, not to drink alcohol, use of toxic products or impure, or ingestion of various drugs or foods of all kinds can be created within the envelope of flesh, of disturbances and cause internal interference inevitably leads to short-circuit problems see a disjunction between body and essence of the spiritual entity. The latter, unable to control when his fleshly envelope properly, find themselves isolated and disconnected from his body that behaves like a madman and vehicle control.

Therefore, in order to alleviate the weakness of men, especially those who can not control their impulses or negative effects from their acts of evil filled with masses negative inked into their flesh and envelopes that adds interference, the BEING OF LIGHT with the spiritual entity of the option, a principle which is safe as long to master his body, and thus predict when it has lost all sense of balance, for example to various addictions, any untoward incident.

When the spiritual entity, through weakness, is influenced by negative masses accumulated in his fleshly envelope, and suffers the adverse effects, is addicted to alcohol, drugs, his body loses all sense of balance, staggers, the various cells and organs no longer function properly, it still has more control, and is disconnected from it. If this man takes the wheel, imagine the damage.

Also, if the spiritual entity follows the ways and laws of God, it strengthens his spiritual essence, and therefore the possibility, by the principle that security is endowed by the being of light, control its carnal envelope, d 'negate the effects due to addiction, and arrived safely.

This warning must then bring the spiritual entity, to definitively abandon these harmful products, which weaken the organs of human body. But it is very useful for spiritual entity. Therefore it must take care of his fleshly envelope, and give up eating all products destructive to the body, otherwise it calls into question why she is on earth, and sees his earthly existence disrupted by these defects and his spiritual development delayed.

Some spiritual entities, can not control their carnal envelope, because of the destructive effects caused by addiction, sexual drive, malice accumulated experience the aggressive reaction of these defects. These latter have in fact taken command somehow their body, the spiritual entities then find themselves disconnected from their fleshly envelope. They are so blinded by the effects induced accumulated in their bodies, and thus remain somewhat detached from reality and are more aware of reality.

Hence the reflection of Christ:

I came on earth, and I (men) have all found blind drunk.

The man who suffers the effects induced by these flaws, remains a slave. These latter have somehow taken command of the body, blinding the spiritual entity, acting with malice, with gestures and warlike intentions. Turning to action, it may therefore take destructive actions such as terrorism or murder.

Imagine the consequences for herself and others. His spiritual future is jeopardized, if not compromised.

Walk with God my friends because it is really hi.

He alone is the redeemer.

What do you know about GOD?

Learn what it means, I take pleasure in the mercy and not sacrifice, because I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

If you know me, (Christ) as you would know God, and now you know, and you've seen.

The BEING OF LIGHT said there are nearly 2000 years to the apostles and the audience came to listen, you have eyes to see, and yet you are blind, ears to hear, and you're deaf.

I speak from the beginning through the prophets, and you continue to ignore me.

I have often said and wrote my friends, God does not hide. It is there before you and among you, yet you do not see it. And you say:

Where is God, if there does not show why does it not?

In truth I tell you, God, the being of light, and has been repeatedly shown to all men without exception, none of them recognized. You've all talked about him without knowing that you visit your father in heaven.

Here is what the being of light told this matter to men:

I called and you did not answer. I have spoken, and you do not hear, but you have done what is evil in my eyes, and you chose what displeases me. I give to him who seeks me. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you. I made known to men, men I gave my Sabbaths as a sign between me and them, for they know that I am the LORD who sanctifies.

One of the main reasons which led men to go blind and deaf, is that it has never held and tried to take account of good advice from God, and that since the beginning. I mean, since Adam and Eve.

Men have thus denying ignorance and naivete by the knowledge that if they dispensed judiciously Being of Light, cultivated their error, which has led inexorably to follow a path towards materialism and spiritual stagnation. They are thus gradually, from generation to generation, trapped in the material, the latter becoming the anchor, the cornerstone of their thinking and their thinking, forgetting entirely their reality of spiritual being, for eventually identify with their fleshly envelope.

Living in a world living in the least developed of the infinite realm, and furthermore governed by the material, they have come to believe that the latter, whose various elements that comprise known were the only ones, and the universe in which they operate, the only one.

Ignorance of the men has been nurtured by its propensity to do evil, and his weakness to satisfy his materialistic impulses, which leads in indulged in cultivation by unjust actions, impressions of greed, wickedness, to create waves and negative mass, which will cause negative effects they are unaware that confine them permanently in the area (their fleshly envelope) making them blind and deaf.

The man will undergo a profound change and his sense of reasoning, understanding, and discernment. On the other side will develop, faculties negative, such as pride, vanity, sufficiency, individualism, indifference, that the distance from the truth.

That is why, from the beginning to make men understand and penetrate the reality of existence, God gave Moses the commandments, laws and ordinances, and commandments, which are human and still do not know, of paramount importance. Precisely because of them, respecting them and applying them carefully, and walking on the tracks of God, he can finally abandon the path of evil in all its forms and that avoid creating waves and masses that it generates negative and destructive effects they create.

The effects caused by waves and negative mass, I repeat again my friend, the enclosed entity as a spiritual body, like a thick smoke prevented him from seeing and hearing clearly, and to discover the truth.

At this stage, the man knows who he is, still less that it is really a spiritual entity.

Remember my friends, what God had said:

Here is what you should do:

Let everyone speak the truth with his neighbor. Imagine your doors according to the truth and for peace. Let no one in his heart does not think evil against his neighbor, and do not like the false oath, for these are all things that I hate. Love truth and peace. Beware of false prophets (religious or spiritual guides unfair) they come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. You know them by their fruits. (They are evidence of malice, are liars and are hateful)

Thus said God, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the spirit of man within him.

Return to me, and I will return to you. Wash you, make you clean. Remove from my eyes the wickedness of your actions. Cease to do evil. Learn to do the good, seek justice.

The overriding concern of the Being of Light is to open the eyes of men so that by what they said, they returned to him, able to walk again on the path to IT, and that they reach a state of alert, and be saved.

The state of awakening my friends, is the emergence of the spiritual being (we are) its carnal envelope. At this stage, the spiritual entity finally knows who she is, where it comes from and where it goes. She obviously knows that his body is a garment worn for change on earth, and can finally penetrate the truth, and be taught of God. The hidden mysteries are revealed to him, and she can finally see God.

The state of awakening my friends can be achieved precisely in respecting and applying the precepts, laws and ordinances, and commandments of God. The man must of course, walking on the tracks of the being of light, reject the evil in all its forms and materialism, and finally annihilate desire, desire, and lust.

I've found God as nobody has done before me, "your heavenly father truth, so you finally know who he is, he loves you more than you can imagine, and you can find it easily. You are all my friends from him.

Your heavenly Father is here my friends, because he does not hide, and has never hidden.

Whatever GOD BEING OF LIGHT of my learned friend, I revealed my turn, with nothing to hide. If you do everything I tell you, you also like me, you will see and know God.

Verily I say unto you, God himself has shown you the way, revealing himself to you when to me, I am glad to inform you of new knowledge so that you know that everything your heavenly father says is true.

Did he not say?

He who seeks me, find me.

Stop my friends, to act hypocritically, thinking that what you do, (the evil you have shown, the greed, the calculation of your designs, lies on the realization of your projects, enslavement and maintenance in ignorance of your people, keeping in poverty from the smallest of you, in refusing to equitably distribute resources and wealth, authoritarianism garish which you demonstrate your power by placing or pouring the blood) GOD will not know.

You can not hide from God, it does not already know. Needless to pray Being of Light, saying that God is great, then you have blood on their hands. God does not listen to you, and do not watch either.

Abandon evil you do, repent, walk again on the ways of God, apply its laws, do good, practice righteousness, and seek peace. Love your neighbor, because all men are brothers, then the being of light will forget what you did.

As long as you do evil, that you disobey God, you will never see her heavenly home will be closed forever.

Do not listen to my friends, religious unfair, or so-called spiritual leaders who do not bear the signs of God. How can they talk about him as they do not know. They are also blind. Is it not written:

They are blind leading the blind. If the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into a pit.

Needless my friends, to pronounce the name of God in every sentence, or twisted around and if you do not follow his ways and laws, if you do not, if you hate all men your brothers, if you do not reject evil, with a black heart, and hands full of blood, for verily I say unto you, all you do is wasted. What you hide the men, to God you could ever do. He do not listen, and do not look further. Everything you say, is only lies and vanity.

God loves above all, those who do good, practice justice, reject the evil in all its forms.

He who does evil, who denies the existence of God, who has an impure heart, which is led by hatred and resentment, not find God. He lives in darkness and blindness.

Now my friends, what I desire and what God, the BEING OF LIGHT want is for you to do what he says, that you were looking for, and as you find and meet him.

It is there, almost all of you and you.

That's why my friends, truly I say to you, you've all met, seen and talked to God without knowing it, simply because you did not recognize.

Remember my friends, what you know GOD.

It is good, right, right, merciful, compassionate, and slow to anger. It gives one who has done wrong and who would have repented forgiveness of sins. It is love and peace. He loves all men more than they realize. Despite all its power, it is simple and humble. If you listen to him speak, you'd be surprised that the tone of his voice is full of affinity and sweetness.

When you meet, and you will receive all these qualities in your partner, do you worry more, you'll know you're in the presence of God himself.

Of course, you'll wonder why you are experiencing; it tells you who he is?

The reason is simple my friends, is not it true your father and your children?

Imagine my friends that you are peacefully at home, reading an interesting book, watching an exciting show to the head, or discussing with your friends, when suddenly the alarm sounded. You get up, go open, and you've caught your father before you land, you come to make an unannounced visit. Before you have to be said though, he comes in and tells you:

Hello my child, I wanted to see you. In fact, you know that I am your father?

You look at it in amazement, stunned by his question, and of course sad, you will answer:

But Dad, why ask me if I know who you are, of course I know you're my father.

That's why my friends, when you meet your heavenly Father, he will not tell you who he is. And you, knowing you'll recognize at once on.

This is one reason why, when the being of light came among men 2000 years ago, he asked his apostles not to tell anyone who he was.

By saying that you really are, namely, spiritual entities, so now you know my friends, you all are from God, and as such, you are all his children. That's why knowing when you will meet your heavenly Father will not tell you who he is.

So do not say:

Where is God, who is he?

Why do we encounter does not it?

The fact that you are heavily mired in the material, because of waves and negative mass that prevents you from perceiving reality, and you've created by your misdeeds, you forget to take your inner self, and makes you blind.

This is the major reason why you can not see God, let alone locate and locate. And yet it is there, everywhere around you, and of course you. Is it not the only living thing that exists, and it contains the content of existence in its absolute. The being of light told the Pharisees, doctors of the law, the scribes who came to listen and to question in light of the experience:

You wash the outside of the cup and dish, (hear your fleshly envelope, and more specifically, your spiritual essence) and especially you forget to wash the inside. Do not you think that whoever was inside, it was he who made the outside?

The being of light had said he would establish a new heaven and a new earth, verily I say unto you, he has done it all.

That's why he said:

What is the survivor of you who saw this house, (hear, the temple of God, the New Jerusalem, the heavenly universe) in its first glory?

And how do you now?

Isaiah had said:

He will arrive in the latter days that the mountain (the celestial universe holy) House (the heavenly Jerusalem) of the LORD will be based on the mountaintop. She exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow. Some people will go there in droves.

We will call the heavenly Jerusalem, the throne of God.

The BEING OF LIGHT explained as follows:

Fortify yourself men of all nations, and work, for I am with you.

I remain faithful to the covenant that I made with you, and my spirit is in you.

Do not be afraid.

It is in this place (the house of heaven) I give peace.

Many nations shall join themselves to God, and shall be my people. I will dwell among you.

As I said above, the effects induced by the evil thoughts and actions, leading the spiritual entity to sink deeply into the matter, gradually leads to forget his real self, and leads to s identify with its carnal envelope. At this stage, she no longer knows who she is. The subject and body in particular is thus an outsized.

Accordingly, the matter in all its components, has a cluster of primary interest to man, and remains the focus of its concerns, and the cornerstone of his knowledge. For her (spiritual entity) is the material basis of all the stage where it is on earth, and this to be the navel of the universe. From there, for man, nothing else.

The man, having forgotten his true identity, its real essence, uses its carnal envelope in everything he undertakes, and indeed become blind, does more to see his own eyes, I mean those of his spiritual essence, but those of his body.

But he does not realize that the human eye has been done or created, for him to see the matter in its various forms, and nothing else.

If he was somewhat coherent avers himself, man would then realize that everything that is outside the field, whose various components make up its universe, it is simply unattainable with human eyes.

How can he in this case, see what is outside the field, and yet does exist, and still around and in the entire universe, interpenetrating.

It will then, if he wants access to other worlds, inventing new devices capable of going beyond the material "primitive" that he knows, or walk on the paths of God and apply its laws.

Now you know why you are blind, and the eyes of your body you use to see, have a field of vision and penetration in the limited area, say no more:

Apart from the known matter, nothing else.

Outside of our universe, there is no other.

God does not exist, where else is it?

In truth, if you do what God asks you for your own development and your hello, you'll surely.

The love of God to men, manifested in this sentence:

You will seek me and find me, if you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you.

The disciples asked the being of light:

What will be the day of your return?

What will be the day we'll see you?

CHRIST said:

The day you'll be naked as newborn children, who walk on their clothing, then you become the son of one who is alive. For you, there will be no fear.

I tell you truly, if you do not convert, and if you do not become as little children, you will never enter the kingdom of GOD.

Therefore, whoever humbles himself like children, will be the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

The words above of the being of light, are clear and precise, because they enable people to know that no one can enter the holy universe, the heavenly Jerusalem, if not before as GOD the often explained, the market on its way, respected and applied its laws.

The reference to children, including their behavior, both to understand men, if they want to reach the state of holiness, they must like them.

In the 1960s, I remember a topic in philosophy offered at LAC, and whose statement was about as follows:

Can we say that the child is father of man?

We can answer in the affirmative for many reasons.

Now that you know me, my friends, you know that I am on a spiritual and not material as a man, and my reasoning based on the word of the being of light and truth, remains only at this level .

Watch children closely my friends. What is ironic is that the adults who passed through this important phase that is crucial and childhood, and therefore children themselves, have preserved the land journey, no memory nor retained the lessons it related.

I pause my friends, to tell you that the course of life or earthly existence of man is divided into three phases, each bringing to men, an amount of specific knowledge, useful and necessary for intellectual development, and his spiritual evolution.

The first phase of childhood is important because it gives men the basic premise for the ideal attitude that must man throughout his earthly life, and provide the foundations of knowledge.

The child said to myself, is naturally and fundamentally good by nature, because this notion still fresh in his memory source, which dictates to some extent his conduct and behavior, data from major issues of the divine nature of God, that placed last in the kernel source residing in the memory of his spiritual essence.

The intellect of the child, yet suffers no pollution outside, usually from unfair and misguided men who take an undeniable pleasure to transmit data harmful imprints of hatred, to bring to deviate from the path of God, whose goodness, justice, love and peace are the plinth.

That's why you see the child naturally act with kindness and innocence, not knowing at this level everything on the evil in all its forms. It is in the child, no idea on the bitterness, arithmetic unhealthy, perverse thought the rear. The child offers generously to others what he has and shares with joy.

Observe the child carefully my friends; you will notice his attention to things unknown, he is eager to learn, being generally trusted, for not receiving the evil around him. Another important feature of his personality remains in the expression of his being, based on simplicity and humility. This latter characteristic, and differs from the adult who as such should be like him.

The child remains fresh in his memory source, despite its presence in the world of men, his spiritual home and is still conscious even if it is not possible now to express it clearly, the reality of 'spiritual being, and keeps his source memory, the memory of its recent past.

That is why the being of light told his disciples:

That old man in charge of day not long interview the child of seven days at the place of life, and he will live.

The child acts and behaves again (newborn, child four to five years) spiritual entity, and has not yet taken the measure of his fleshly envelope, and no one identifies absolutely not, unlike adults. It gives him only a relative importance, which leads by example, to play naturally with other children with carnal envelope different from hers (shape or color) by destroying the latter, or by ignoring it completely. They act, behave, think in spiritual entities, playing with other spiritual beings like themselves, completely obscuring the color of their respective carnal envelope.

There will be between them a total union, a perfect cohesion, a sincere friendship. On the other hand, if you listen carefully to children talk, you will receive in the tone of his voice, very gently and affinity.

If this is based on the portrait of the child I have just painted, you will agree with me, the adult is light years away.

At this level the child has unrestricted access to the heavenly world, which is unfortunately not the case of man, because in the state that is his, her heavenly doors are closed, and he will not force them.

The being of light told the apostles:

Beware despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven always behold the face of GOD.

Man must therefore make every effort to imitate the child, copy it and like it, be simple, humble, and have an open mind.

The celestial world, I often had to say, is for spiritual entities incarnated on earth, have throughout their earthly journey, walking on the tracks of God, respected and applied the laws of God, in order 'purify their spiritual essence. Cine qua non condition for access.

Verily I say unto you, do not force the entrance into the celestial universe you'll never. Yet what are all those who shed blood in the attacks, and stupidly obedient, without thinking of religious unfair, animated by a philosophy from Satan, which made them believe that their act is dictated by the love of GOD. What these religious iniquitous do not tell them is that the God in question is none other than Satan himself. These men and women who make and blood, will never enter the heavenly universe. The doors are permanently closed. Whatever they do, they will never force them. It is thus all those who shed blood, whatever the reasons.

Other details relating to the gates of heaven, they remain invisible and therefore unavailable to anyone not invited by God.

That's why my friends, I tell you not to listen to religious unworthy, these drivers satanic evil these guides, who know not God. They are driven by lies, and to guide Satan. These religious and spiritual leaders will never enter the spiritual world, and you want to keep going. Do not trust them; their heart is black and filled with hatred. They are not an example to follow; otherwise you may find yourself in darkness.

The celestial world is for everyone who looks to God as children, who reject evil in all its forms, and choosing the path of God, based on kindness, justice, love, peace.

The expression of the BEING OF LIGHT, "the new-born children who walk on their clothes, hear, such as newborn children who are separated easily from their fleshly envelope" really wants to understand men, that they must necessarily emerge from their body to become spiritual entity such as children, and phase that can be achieved by conscience, is still in the world of men, is the application of precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments of God, which added the renunciation of materialism, the total annihilation of desire, envy, greed, control and annihilation of suffering, pain and misery , culminating in the waking state.

I was brought in my book, "God - The Revelation Of The 13th Way's Insider" to explain how you reach this state.

God has often informed the men that there is nothing worse than pride, vanity and conceit. These defects generate impulses that lead human rights in the darkness, bringing the subject to do evil to achieve his purposes by dividing, in speaking, not sharing, keeping in indifference, and placing it in his mind feelings based on hatred of others.

On the other side simplicity, humility, and distils bring goodness, love of others, compassion, sense of sharing the gift of oneself, the secondment to the benefit of others, peace etc.. The simplicity and humility, are expressions of the being of light, when he speaks of the smallest, or the last.

Remember his words:

The Last Shall Be First.

Anyone who wants to be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave (servant).

Whoever among you is the smallest, will experience the kingdom of God, and will be higher than John.

Humiliate your friends, become like these little children, and do not listen to those religious leaders who do not know God, you deceive and mislead you.

God told the men:

I came, why was there one?

I called, why did not someone say?

I stood in the middle of the world, and I expressed to them in the flesh. I found them all drunk. I have found among them who is thirsty.

My soul has suffered for the son of men, because their heart is blind. They do not see that they were born empty and they are about to come out as empty.

But they are drunk. When they have slept off their wine, they change their attitude and repent.

The sadness of the BEING OF LIGHT is the result of the apathy of men for millennia, and despite the advice and guidance of God, continue to remain in error.

This loss of men is mainly due to the lax of spiritual leaders and other religious unworthy that only does not know God, but are mostly unable to properly explain and translate the words of the BEING OF LIGHT, then guide them and give useful advice and placing them carefully on the divine path.

Men therefore have gained intelligence, wisdom, and not continue to wander aimlessly, or would go here and there, seeking answers to existential questions about the truth.

Responses that have to remain the spiritual guides and religious, which for reasons unmentionable or preserve their authority, seeking earnestly to maintain their stranglehold on the people, and often out of ignorance because unable to correctly interpret the words divine, not want to give to men.

The apostle Paul, addressing the gathering said already that time:

You continue to question me about God or about topics related to the path and divine laws that you would be the masters of long ago.

The men left behind have continued to work in the dark (as they still do today the rest) are desperately seeking answers, hence their interest immoderate materialism which remains their only reference tangible.

Do not try to blame only the spiritual leaders and religious, because it is true that they bear a great responsibility on the errors of men and their total loss and wandering, they have too much of responsibility for what happens to them. Although not possessing the keys of knowledge and truth that have religious and do not want them back, they were still in their hands the sacred texts, where instructions are the words of God, without forgetting that they are fully aware that marked the path represents the precepts, laws and ordinances, and commandments of God.

With all this, how is it even possible that man continues to roam, and to look?

He still needs a lot of spiritual dignity, certainly with him in the sign of God, who can guide the lead in the right direction, the crop if necessary, advise, protect drivers from unfair because men son Satan, bring it on track if by chance he loses, the care and cure when it errs on the road leading into the darkness. Here is the mission of the religious worthy shepherds of God.

Drunkenness alluded to the being of light, specifically for this wandering of mind, this lack of thirst for knowledge about God, truth in its absolute and data spiritual wider and deeper. This intoxication is also reflected in man by his propensity to wander aimlessly, to live in ease and ignorance, closed minds to reality and spiritual knowledge.

They (men) living on the margins of the truth, ignore it and not offended by them. The fact that they are blind does not help, because in reality they do not know, and do not help more.

The being of light told the apostles:

Be open.

The expression to be open, meaning not simply quit the outside, wanting to increase his knowledge, accept new ideas, new hypotheses, and interact with others. To be open, it is necessary to reject pride, vanity, conceit, authoritarianism, which are all obstacles to intellectual and spiritual development, opting for simplicity and humility.

The simplicity and humility, bringing the openness essential that opens to the spiritual entity, the paths of knowledge.

Be open, but also recognize his mistakes, want to reject, correct them by agreeing to receive the sage or master data corrective inevitably lead in adopting new, more just, in the light.

The sadness of the being of light is great when he sees how the man is in bad shape, was introverted, closed its mind to the truth and has hardened his heart by refusing to listen the path of truth and choosing the path of evil.

Another truth is revealed about the man, when the being of light says:

The man saw that he came into the world empty, and he is about to come out as empty:

As I was led to say above, the primary rationale for the presence of man on earth, focus on several points we shall see below.

Like Adam and Eve, man has the source memory of his spiritual essence prior knowledge, any knowledge on terrestrial data and especially heavenly.

If God has helped our first parents in their infancy when they were in the garden of Eden, teaching them the foundations of knowledge, behavior and so ideal. He did the same for all spiritual beings that we are in itself acting directly or through the celestial beings. I recall again my friends, that they are truly the wizards of the BEING OF LIGHT.

The first phase of this instruction is in the spiritual world, and as we follow the same path that our first parents, and just before our incarnation on planet earth.

The second phase and the most important place on earth during our incarnation, and this continues throughout our earthly journey.

That is why the being of light says that man came into the world empty, the mind and memory source of our spiritual essence, devoid of any data relating to knowledge. So to help fill this void, God gave him points inking solids which are:

The precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments.

The man came to earth to:

1°) Learn lessons on pairs of opposites, the good and bad, right and wrong, to be confronted, and sent to annihilate completely the evil in all its forms.

2°) Learn data materialism and related defects such as, envy, desire, lust and achieve by being confronted to annihilate all the while completely abandoning materialism and achieving a total detachment.

3°) Learn data for the suffering, misery, poverty, managing to nullify the negative effects they cause, and arriving at what they do affect us more.

4°) Learn data for the simplicity and humility, those assuredly lead to openness and truth.

5°) Seek God, the only MAJOR SPIRITUAL BEING LIVING, which is really, and has life. It really is, and only one:

The redeemer, the savior, the Messiah, Christ, Buddha, the Imam Mahdi.

6°) Purify his spiritual essence, because only the state of holiness opens the doors of the holy realm of the being of light, the holy universe.

The man is on earth to fill the void of spiritual understanding, respecting and applying the laws of the being of light that govern the earth and the heavens. Remember my friends, that God hates the evil in all its forms, and asks people to do the same.

Now, the man who prefers to disobey God, who rejects his advice and guidance of God, who does not walk on the path of light or apply the laws of God and therefore chose inaction see the spiritual and intellectual regression, remain in a closed universe, isolated from the celestial world of darkness and without possible outcomes. He and wander aimlessly, doing stand still and go nowhere.

The man came into the world empty, and leaves the world empty. His earthly existence has been a failure. It will not be possible to enter the sacred temple of God.

On the other side, who obeyed God, did everything he asked for his own intellectual and spiritual benefit of all benefits accrued on earth, enters the temple of the being of light, where he will see God's heavenly father. For him there will be no fear. God give him rest and eternal life.

The being of light told his disciples:

"He, who has ears to hear, let him hear."

If light exists inside a luminous creature, then it illuminates the entire universe. But if it does not illuminate, then it is dark.

A chance is offered to one who has an empty mind, walking aimlessly and denies the existence of God. By putting him on earth, the only place where the spiritual entity has the opportunity to refine his spiritual essence, or his robe, like the BEING OF LIGHT said to his disciples, using the language of men, achieving the awake, and the man should not be missed. He has the opportunity to become aware of reality, truth, to know God in the seeking, and thus awaken his spiritual lethargy by correcting its errors and thus be forgiven if he repents and walks towards the being of light.

That is why the BEING OF LIGHT adds:

When they have slept off their wine, they change their attitude and repent.

The servant of GOD

GOD Isaiah held in these words:

Here is my servant whom I uphold. Mine elect, in whom my soul delights. I put my spirit upon him. He will reveal justice to the nations.

He did not cry, he will not raise his voice, and will not make it heard in the streets. It will not break the crushed reed, and will not extinguish the wick is weakening.

It will reveal the truth by law. He will not falter, nor escape, until he established the law on earth, and that the islands expect its law.

I, the LORD, I called for justice, and I take you by the hand. I will keep you and I appoint you to make a covenant with the people, for a light of nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to release the captive from prison, and their inhabitants dungeon of darkness.

Deaf, listen.

Blind, look and see.

Who is blind but my servant, and deaf as my messenger whom I send?

Who is blind as he who has found peace.

Blind as the servant of the Lord?

When God says, who is blind and deaf as my messenger, he wants to actually send a message to men, help them understand and believe that he has always told the truth, gave very good advice, and that his faithful servant found among men, is justified by his actions and teaching them that God reveals. It becomes for them a model and example.

Blind and deaf, because it stands out from the mass of humanity by not letting themselves be intimidated or deceived by evil men holding false statements, cynical and nasty, taking a perverse pleasure to mislead people by forcing them to take the path that leads directly into a dead end and darkness.

The people who act for evil, just not know God, and know nothing about him. They claim to know the sacred texts, including fully, the word of God; That is not true. If it were so, they demonstrate by their way of thinking through their actions and behavior, then serving as worthy guides to men.

Look my friends; as they affect both the word of God, but also the meaning. Being Ignorant of GOD and celestial mysteries, they'll have the sacred texts and the word of the LORD; they have previously made additions or deleted some passages, underestimating the importance, unable either to meet the quintessence or to understand the major significance.

These evil beings including Satan and his demons, but also spiritual guides unfair, and other false religions. They distance themselves from God by their background full of malice and hatred. Their main goal is to divide men, leading them to show malice, aggression, selfishness, indifference, hatred for each other. They desire above all, keep people in ignorance. Remember these words of Christ to the lawyers, scribes and Pharisees:

You do not want to go into the kingdom of God, and you prevent people going there. You hold the keys to truth, knowledge and spiritual science, and you do not want to give them.

These (men) are then manipulated by evil men, they ignore their real goal. Carried by the Satanic philosophy, developed by the false religion that make them follow the path of darkness, they become blind and deaf, because they are unable to know what is right and wrong, truth from falsehood, good from evil. With the hardened heart, they are incapable of loving their neighbor.

These false monks divert the men of the reality, keep them locked in a straitjacket which they will have many difficulties to get out, losing all sense of reasoning, far from reality, analysis of the understanding, which ultimately will lead them to reject the Lord.

The purpose of the prince of evil, which incidentally hates men, is to raise the malice, division, violence, hatred. Not knowing God Himself, Satan does everything possible to ensure this for humans.

It is written:

Those (mens) along the path are those who hear, then the devil comes and takes away their heart the word of God, lest they should believe and be saved.

GOD says:

The priests did not say:

Where is the LORD?

The custodians of the law did not know me. The pastors have been unfaithful to me. The prophets prophesied by Baal. They went after those who do not help.

The truth has disappeared, she withdrew from their mouths. The path of the wicked is as darkness, they are not aware that they stumble. The wicked man walks with a perverse mouth. Perversity is in his heart. He devises evil continually, he sows discord.

There are things that God hates.

A proud look, a lying tongue. Hands that shed innocent blood. The heart that devises wicked plans. Feet that be swift in running to evil. A false witness that speaketh lies. Whoever stirreth quarrels between brothers. The man who indulges in evil.

These people, says God, honor me with their lips but their heart is far from me. In vain he honors me as teaching doctrines which are behaviors of men. You leave the commandment of God.

God is by nature, love, kindness, justice and peace. He hates the evil in all its forms. He brings together; he unite men, his children, and want the happiness for all. For the love of his children and the men, he teaches the truth concerning him he tells them the mysteries of heaven, but he also shows them the way forward, one that leads to him and of course to the celestial kingdom of God. To help men and preserve them from evil in all its forms, he gave them precepts, statutes and ordinances, commandments, so they can live without exception, love, justice and peace.

The craving for God is to bring men to know him better, to tell the difference between good and evil, right and wrong, truth from falsehood, knowing that by doing evil, whether by action, in word or thought, they create waves or masses that cause negative effects and disastrous for them of course for those around them. It is the law of cause and effect, which man ignores the existence.

Avoid my friends, to hurt in any form whatsoever. God above all wishes men to know that the forces of evil, by the waves and negative mass they create, weaken their capacity to resist their evil provocation, and enclose as in a matrix that makes them blind and deaf, and unable to react. The man becomes a slave to his senses and instincts, forget all reality, no one knows who he really is. As far as he is concerned, everything he sees and hears, becomes the only reality. Having lost his free will and choice, he foolishly following the wishes of the demonic beings, not only incapable of countering them, but also to turn away from them, and collect their lies and their perversion. These false monks enslave and keep them in ignorance.

The messenger of God remains impervious to the Satanic philosophy; and that can show and tell the false monks and of course, men who reject God by the forces of evil as a means of expression and guideline.

God gives men this warning:

It is a people robbed and plundered. They were all trapped in pits, hidden in the dungeons. They were plundered, and nobody delivers them. Counted, and no one says:

Who among you will give ear to this?

Who wants to listen carefully to reach in the future?

Let show out the blind people as they have eyes, and deaf as they have ears. That all nations come together, and that people pile up.

To be deaf and blind as the servant or messenger of God is precisely to know God; and only longing to walk with him on his ways; and observe and enforce his laws; and put forward and reveal to men his teaching; to reveal to men the traps set by the forces of evil and their tentacles represented by these false monks unfair to hate speech.

This trust in the Lord allows on one hand to know the intentions of the bellicose forces of evil, the head of which is the prince of evil, I named Satan assisted by false monks; on the other hand, strong teaching from God, they resist them, push them back, knowing their true background and fatal accident, never to be part of them and predict their warlike intent.

All this allows the servant of God to lead people and tell them how to recognize avoid and protect themselves.

Being blind and deaf in this case, as regards the messenger of God, it's to be filled with divine light offered by the Lord, who has such a spiritual force against which the evil in all its Forms can do nothing. This allows the servant of God to be blind and deaf to bellicose rhetoric, deceptive and unfair bound by false monks, and all they want to tell him against the truth, and not follow on the stony path they are taking, and inexorably leads into darkness. Is to get away from them; Is to refuse to listen to them.

Is to remain faithful to God and take him, only him, as an example.

That guide people in the path of good, that of the Lord, teaching them the truth. God said:

The one who wants to glory glories, to have intelligence and to know me; know that I am the LORD, who exercises kindness, justice and righteousness on earth, because I delight of that.

The priests will teach the people to distinguish what is holy and unholy, they will make them know the difference between the unclean and the clean.

I the LORD thy God, I teach you for your good, I lead you in the way you should follow. Here's the order I give you:

Listen to my voice, I am your God and you are my people. Walk in all the ways that I recommend to you to be happy.

Word of the LORD to the people:

Even if you cleaned yourself with saltpeter using much soap, your fault is marked before me.

It's your faults that have disrupted everything; it's your sins which deprive you of these properties ; as it is among my people of the wicked. They like the spy who sets traps, they tend a net to take men of the smallest of them to the greatest; all are greedy.

From the prophet even unto the priest, all avail themselves of falsity. They treat lightly the wound of my people. Peace, peace, they say. There is no peace. They should be ashamed of the horrors they commit.

By these words of truth, the Divine Being wants, from one hand, let the men acquire a knowledge unknown by them; and to the other hand, he want to guide and lead them to realize the disastrous effects caused by pests and sins . Whenever you sin, you mess your spiritual essence, and consequently, you move away from God.

What is sin?

It is the transgression of the commandments of God, who lost sanctifying grace and causes death to the spiritual soul, or reduces grace without losing the friendship and the love of God. It owes its existence exclusively to the thoughts, words and deeds with the base or means of expression, the evil in all its forms. It is being (man, Satan and his demons) who is responsible for its existence.

It is you (men) who make sin exist, when you act in accordance with the habits of your nature adultery (according to your nature inclined to evil in all its forms. In accordance with your heart, in which you installed the evil, and you use as a mode of expression.) there is sin.

You have all been lost for millennia, by dubious spiritual leaders, religious unfair, that have no religious title and not the heart. All these, ignore the word of God, they do not know for that matter. They've often said to follow a dead end, tortuous, stony, dark, causing you to enforce their directives or guidance based on human traditions, claiming that they are safe, viable and worthy of interest. But they take a different path, being satan's servant. They seek honor, power, materialism is their mode of expression. They will even tell you that by following their advice and guidance, your sins will be erased.

My friends, all that is wrong.

You will not erase your sins by meeting a doubtful spiritual guide or an ignorant religious; and not knowing God, and he piously listing your sins. They would claim to have received power from God. All this is a lie and a deception.

Be a good listener my friends; have an open mind.

This is not going to dive in water with humility consecrated or sacred river says, that your sins will be erased.

It is not by visiting a shrine, praying the Lord with devotion or making libations that your sins will be erased.

This is not following the guidelines of false religious unfair, prompting you to shed blood on behalf of a false god (Satan) in this case, that your sins may be blotted out, and you will be entering paradise.

All this is false.

That is why my friends, God tells you emphatically that whatever method you will use to clean your sins, if it is not based on the divine word that explains how to do it, its precepts, laws and ordinances, commandments, if you do not walk on his ways, everything you do will be useless and will not have any effect on you.

Whatever God tells you my friends is true, that is why I urge you to listen in confidence and do whatever he tells you. He loves you more than you can imagine, and wants your happiness above all.

Christ had said 2000 years ago :

You want me to speak of heavenly mysteries, and you do not already understand the mysteries I reveal.

Also my friends, listen to what I reveal, that comes from your Father in heaven.

Whoever commits sin becomes a slave of sin.

Remember my friends, that we create by word, by thought or by our actions, by positive or negative waves or masses, depending on the nature of our heart, and whether or not we walk with God.

Seek God, he is the only redeemer and savior. He really wants to help us and save us. If you are looking for him my friends, you will find him; because he has never been hidden. Follow his example, so you rely on his divine nature as a model. Isn't God Love, Kindness, justice and peace? If you walk on his ways and apply its laws, you will create waves and positive masses who will protect you and destroy the waves and negative mass; and you will then be safe and happy, you and your family.

By cons, choosing the path of evil, by following the Satanic philosophy, in closing you the truth, and rejecting God, you put up the sin by creating waves and negative mass which envelop both your body carnal and your spiritual essence. It will happen then, in medium or long term, the effects caused by these waves and negative mass as a screen insulation. You will then exit from your mortal coil, and have great difficulty in having mastery again.

Waves and negative mass not only arouse the impulses in your body the most damaging of which you will become slaves of the effects they induce, but also will reduce your sense of Judgement, analysis, understanding and arouse or will emerge from your mind any negative thoughts stored pests that you can not control and annihilate even months. You will now be locked in a straitjacket, from which it will be very difficult to extract. You will then become a slave of your mind and thoughts that emerge harmful. Therefore, as Satan and his demons, you have a behavior, an attitude, a heart from which emerge from the speech, thought and action oriented only towards evil, which you will apply the philosophy. You will then become a slave of evil in all its forms, blind and deaf to the truth. You will be unable to differentiate between good and bad, right and wrong, truth and falsehood. You lose touch with reality, and you will not know who really you are. Your space will be reduced considerably, you will lose all marks, unable to understand and grasp the full meaning and the epitome of the word of God. You walk in the dark, not knowing where to go or how to get there.

God will remain hidden from you, especially if you have blood on your hands.

You came empty in the world (that is to say without knowing or understanding of any kind) and will leave you to your death, in the same state.

That is why, for the love of man, God says tirelessly to abandon the evil in all its forms.

Christ said:

People hate me because I give them the evidence that their works are evil.

He added:

Be sure to wash the inside of the cup and dish, (understand, be sure to clean your spiritual essence) that the outside may become clean. (That your body is clean)

Your own actions which will judge you.

That is why my friends, I urge you to listen to God, because he wants to free you from the confinement in which you are. Did he not say:

I, the LORD, I say what is right, I proclaim what is right.

Practice kindness, justice, law, compassion, mercy, peace, because that's what I like.

Renounce the evil in all its forms, choose the right path; the path of God; and you will be saved. You will seek, and you will find it.

By acting as you suggest, you can certainly wash your dress, clean your spiritual essence, and will enter the house of your heavenly Father, the sine qua non condition to achieve this. On the other hand, you put yourself away from evil forces. You can now provide by their intonation and the virulence of their connection, the lies they made and propagated by the false monks, that will deceive you by making you follow a path that leads directly into gloomy darkness.

Move away from them, stay away from them, turn their backs. Do not behave like them, and you'll be able to protect you.

Christ said:

First clean the inside of the cup and dish, (understand, first purify yourself from the inside, that is to say purify your spiritual essence first, purify your heart) and the outside will become clean.

God said:

Repent, cease to do evil in all its forms, and I would forget what you did.

Your repentance must be sincere and come from deep inside your heart. What you hide from men and they will never know, to God my friends, it is impossible. You can not hide anything from him, he did not already know. Do the good my friends, walk on the ways of God, apply his laws, you will create waves and positive masses that will be purified and allow you to wash your spiritual essence. You will then become sons and daughters of God, and you will get the grace of God.

Do what God has taught you and you walk with the Lord safely.

Here are the recommendations of the Lord.

What I want is not that the wicked should die, instead he must change his ways and he shall live. Come back, come back from your evil ways. Why should you die?

If the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits injustice, he will die.

If the wicked turn from his wickedness and practices justice and righteousness, he shall live because of it. If the wicked turn from his sin and practices the law and justice, whether to make a pledge, return what he has stolen, follows the requirements that give life, without committing injustice, yes he will live; he will not die.

I will judge each according to his ways.

God to men:

Your words have been hard against me, and you said:

In vain have served God. What have we gained by observing his command and walk with sadness because of the LORD of hosts?

Now we estimate happy those presumptuous who practice wickedness flourished. Yes, they put God to the test and they escape.

For millennia, ignoring the underlying reasons of his presence on, and moreover who really he is, man has continued, by he intellectual, moral and mental weakness to accuse God falsely.

All his thoughts or analysis regarding its existence concentrate and revolve around materialism exclusively. His brief view of the reality and his inability to penetrate it, led by the pride and vanity, prevents him from perceiving the essence of reality. Hence his erroneous thinking, leading him to wonder why he must listen God, observe and apply its precepts, laws and ordinances, His commandments. Why he must reject evil in all its forms and choosing the path of goodness, love, law, justice and peace, since it does not see the results of his efforts.

Many men said that it was useless to follow the path of God, that of the good, because in doing evil, robbing his neighbor with cynicism and indifference, stealing his property with, using backbiting, deceit, uttering lies, making promises that we have not the intention to hold, using our authority to shed blood for some reason, (the policy-makers and leaders) who think it possible to obtain wealth, they seek to retain power by all means, and to live comfortably for a very long period without fear. These men unfortunately, ignore the truth.

Unfortunately, we also see the priests, the teachers of the law and the clerics who know neither God nor His word, nor truth. What can they teach you, and what can they inculcate you? They do not know the path that leads to God; how in these circumstances can they show it to you?

Regarding the spiritual or existential questions you'd ask them, not only they would be hard pressed to respond, but they will give incomplete responses, targeting only the materialist which is the only part of their knowledge. In all cases, they have no connection with God, his word, much less his real education. How can they in these conditions: guide, counsel, gather, heal people, show the right path.

They walk in darkness. Do you really think a blind man can guide other men as they blind?

Regarding the evil that spreads its tentacles worldwide, see how they are silent.

When the rulers shed blood with impunity, why do they remain silent?

Some even ask what's the use of serving God?

Whatever we do, they ask themselves, by living holy and faithful, walking humbly in the ways of God we don't earn nothing, while those who do evil thrive. Why choose a path of poverty and chastity, if our lot is pain and suffering, while those who follow the path of evil gain power, wealth and lead a life exhilarating and seemingly happy. What difference is it they say, to do good rather than evil, if the result is beneficial to the wicked?

Oh man of little intelligence and little faith. What do you know about God?

What do you know about the truth?

What do you know about the real existence?

You already don't know who really you are; how in these conditions can you enter and understand the word of God and his teachings?

You have hardened your heart; your mind has become impenetrable to the word of truth. You closed it.

Men, among them blind and deaf religious and rulers, closed-minded to the truth, denial and ignorant, saying:

It is vain to serve God. What can one shall win doing that?

What benefit or advantage shall we?

See my friends, like their thoughts are sinful. These are computers, men who want to give if they get something back.

The man who walks with God, give with your heart, and don't ask nothing in return. That is loving men; that is serving God.

Man is the child who is seeking answers and never gets any, including those ignorant monks who only does not know God, but give you unrelated answers to the truth laid down by God. You can see that with their unconscionable behavior and their false statements.

The worthy religious shepherd faithful servant of God is above all one who serves God, serves as an intercessor with men, who received his word and his teaching and is pleased to faithfully transmit to the men and their guide, witness, advisor, custodian.

Serve God, at any level, whether on earth or in heaven, is an honor and a pleasure indescribable and unspeakable.

The servant of God acts as the Lord taught him with detachment, humility, love, goodness, righteousness, justice, peace, compassion, dedication. It is naturally free from attachment, and annihilated the desire, envy and lust. It is free to hold interest, including any links to materialism, seeking only the pleasure of God the Father, and of his fellow men. His actions will only towards men, so that they are progressing spiritually out of their blindness and go to God. He's a naturally calm, serene, peaceful, inherently good, just and right. He showed great humility. It is a spiritual entity, vibrant good feelings and willing to help men with love.

The mission that God has entrusted him is the noblest of all. It is based exclusively on the spiritual plane, and he knows the truth that he has pleasure in revealing to mankind. He is naturally quiet, and did not complain anytime about anything. He has nothing; he own nothing; and yet you could not offer him something he has already received from God his father. That is why he will not ask you anything because God has already provided him with everything. He will not ask anything more to the Lord because he knows that God gives him everything he wants for the love of him, and much more.

Remember my friends, these words that Christ pronounced, addressing the apostles:

Be happy, because you see and hear what many people will never see and perhaps will never hear.

God is truth; he always keeps all his promises. Ponder my friends, these great words of the Lord.

Whos has appointed God to govern the world? Who gave him the all world?

If he thought only of himself, if he brought with him his spirit and his breath, (the vivifying source) all flesh would perish together and man would return to dust.

Have an open mind my friends, don't be closed to the truth, and of course to God and his word. It is often ignorance of reality, lack of knowledge, which leads man to reason, to behave or make wrong decisions based on limited knowledge. Relax in God, trust in him, not to men, not to the son of evil who want only your loss.

God had already told the rulers and priests long time ago, this truth is still valid today:

You rulers who visit abominable law, and pervert all righteousness, you who build Zion (God's temple) with bloodshed and Jerusalem with wickedness. Their leaders judge for reward, their priests teach for hire.

I do not want, he said, only one of you dies. If you do what I command you, you will live.

He who does evil in all its forms, who shed blood, this one will die.

He who walks on my way, that respects and applies my laws, this one will live.

Do not make the mistake my friends envy your neighbor on the pretext that he is rich, powerful, easy, he lives in opulence, happiness, and not you who are poor, destitute, suffering and sadness. Are you sure that its enviable position as it is, is it beneficial?

They, verily I say unto you, have already received their reward.

If you think your social situation gloomy, dreary, sad to see so abnormal that you walk with God, be rather happy it's you that these rich and powerful envy when they see you happy in the house of God. You my friends, looking to build wealth in heaven, treasures that you keep forever and not them.

You have a life full of pain, and you know all the difficulties to get away, you are poor, my friends endure this situation calmly, without resentment or bitterness because you are at the door of the house of God. The rich and the powerful religious unjust, are still far away. Keep my friends, walking on the ways of God, and always look with confidence to enforce its laws. It is you my dear friends who are on the right path, one that leads to the LORD.

Be confident. The Lord said:

Whoever is wise, has the intelligence of these things. Whoever is intelligent can understand them, because the ways of the Lord are straight. The righteous walk in them, but criminals will stumble. Return to the LORD your God, for he gives grace, he is compassionate, slow to anger, abounding in love.

God produces to the human being according to his actions. He rewards each according to his ways.

My friends, I tell you the truth, whatever God says and teaches is true. I am the witness of it.

To the servants and to the men in doubt or disbelief, God states:

Those who fear God (who hate the evil in all its forms) and respect my name they shall be mine. They are mine.

I will spare them, as a man spares his son who serves him. And you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

The day will come when the presumptuous and all those who do wickedly will be stubble.

So for you who fear my name, the sun of justice will rise, and the healing will be in his wings. Step outside and you will jump for joy.

God humiliates and hurts; in order to teach you that man does not live only by bread; man lives by everything that comes from the mouth of the LORD.

He already said thousands years ago, and it is also true today:

The wickedness of the men is big on the earth. All thoughts of their heart go every day towards the evil.

Sin and its ramifications, are not the fact of God as we have seen in a previous topic, but has for origine Satan, whose emerges from a dark nature. Then by his bellicose and false intentions concerning God and the truth divine teaching , he brought the men to adopt him and to place him in their heart.

The philosophy that the Supreme Being of Light set up since the beginning of creation, which comes from its deep nature, stands for love, goodness, righteousness, justice and peace.

Sin is the result of evil in its absolute diversity. It comes from the human heart, which he expresses the deepest nature. It prevents spiritual progress of man; it shut up and keeps him a prisoner of the material, preventing him from perceiving the truth; it drastically slows and reduces all his faculties; it makes him blind and deaf. Moreover, it keeps man in ignorance, interferes in his mind by bringing out the dark thoughts; it reduces his reflection and reasoning. It thus causes the isolation of the spiritual entity from its mortal coil, or by too much negative mass created in the enclosed material, causing it eventually to forget who really is he; making him a slave. All this, inevitably, leads to death.

From time immemorial, men, by ignorance, arrogance, vanity, laziness, complacency, ease, set up laws and traditions which foundations were from the evil, fruit of sin; to justify their search of inordinate power, lust, property, power; pushing aside God's laws; saying cynically that all dogmas and moral principles of Eternal had no legitimacy or value to them, and they should follow and implement the ones they set up; without specifying or by hiding people the shabby side, calculating, selfish, unfair and unhealthy in their approach, nor the ensuing disorder. Today we see the consequences of their corrupt practices and hypocrite intentions to gradually cancel the just and righteous laws of God through the application of their traditional laws and customs that cause the growing inequalities and the hooking of evil all-over the earth.

Only the wise man now sees the disastrous effects of human traditions and laws enacted by policymakers, politicians, religious unfair, all clinging to their power or benefits thereunder, and who hide their warlike intentions. They are motivated by an unspoken desire: the want to gain numerous privileges to the detriment of the people whom they voluntarily maintain status dependent and excluded. The taste of the honors and profits that motivate them, ensures they maintain voluntary men in ignorance, so that they do not understand, do not respond or are unable; the do not seek the truth, remain blind and deaf, as they harden their heart, and continue to ignore the disastrous effects of sin and what it engenders, and which they ignore the existence. They are therefore all under the influence of the prince of evil.

Evil leads man who is addicted to find legitimacy for its actions against nature, and become indifferent to the suffering they cause.

Failure to recognize the existence of God and the rejection of its precepts, laws and ordinances of His commandments, causes man to live outside the real world, to isolate himself, to move away , to depart and live permanently in darkness.

Ignorance usually leads to denial or atheism, which is the worst destructive force of man. From the moment he believes in nothing, he did not brake his actions, and puts no limit to his reasoning, his actions, his thoughts and his words full of wickedness. When the ethic is not implemented and his morality is doubtful, he will naturally show malice. There are usually in that man a lot of hatred, intolerance, conceit, pride, aggression, resentment, indifference. The revenge and the resentment are natural in him as standard; he uses and abuses with consequences in terms of pain and suffering caused. He does not care. His course of action is often based on slander, contempt towards the believer or to all those who think differently, racism and materialism in the inking. He likes to criticize, judge, ignoring the psychological impact and the devastating effects they induce and create by his words.

The rage has so extended its tentacles into the world so that the reasons which cause man to do evil are often hypocritical, devious, calculating, deceptive, unsubstantiated or real basis, by pure malice, cynicism, or sit for extended hegemony or authority arbitrarily, by unbridled pursuit of materialism or to increase its profits.

The evil is so widespread on earth so that it becomes worrisome. Men today are evil for a yes or for a no; for any action that he deems offensive or degrading to his ego. Other hypocritically hiding behind religion, engaging in bitter diatribes against believers of other religions or those who think differently, with the word God constantly in their mouth, whenever they know nothing about him and even less his holy word. Their unexpressed desires: make profits, the pursuit of power, the enslavement of man. To achieve this, they will not hesitate to shed blood. They do not care about God's laws, they are trampling merrily and dare to defy God.

Remember my friends, these words of God:

These people come near me, he honored the mouth and lips, but their heart is far from me, and the fear he has of me is a precept of human tradition.

Also my friends, instead of opting for the Satanic philosophy whose nature is dark and gloomy, which leads you directly to your loss, choose the path that God is light and leads to the Eternal Life.

God loves you more than you can imagine. He guides you, tirelessly for millennia. Is it not written:

You will all be taught of God.

That is why, once again the Being of Light tells you:

God humiliates and hurts, to teach you that man does not live by bread alone, but that man lives by everything that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD. The Eternal punishes and takes back the one that he loves.

It is high time for men to learn what is good and and what is evil; what is right and what is wrong; what is the truth and what is the falsehood; what they engender in benefaction and in misdeed. Then, by the trials he faces throughout his earthly sojourn, and according to what God has taught him, he must resist the forces of evil in all its forms, canceling the negative effects they cause, being firmly in the love of God, walking with confidence and trust in the path of light that the Being of Light drew for the man, and finally, to purify its spiritual essence.

On the other hand, these tests enable man to distinguish between good and evil, right and wrong, truth and falsehood, and so finding the right path, right, full of light and to walk forever.

These tests, by being confronted with them, allow the embodied spiritual entity that is the man, from entering the quintessence of evil, to know its dark nature, study and know how its effects are harmful, devastating and lead to darkness. He will then depart, and of course in turn will protect his fellow human beings.

The suffering, pain, misery and humiliation he suffered throughout his earthly life, are all life-saving tests that allow the man who faces, study, and then annihilate negative effects that would rise in him anger, resentment, aggression, jealousy etc., knowing they are there, (the events) to help solve them, and to grow spiritually. By waves and positive masses that it will create, when it rose by applying God's word, it will increase its ability to destroy air and negative mass, and enhance inner calm and serenity. It happens now to consolidate its gains from the property, and of course remain faithful to God.

Often the believer seeking God and living a life that respects the laws of God and love of men, meets during his earthly existence, human beings with ideas full of hatred, aggression, Holocaust denial, violence, racism, materialism, are persuaded by their false arguments which put doubt in her mind. If they had carefully studied the scripture, and more specifically, whether there was noted the word of God, they would be immune from doubt and pierce easily dishonest intentions, bellicose and empty of truth of these men to the dark spirit, and would easily identify their spiritual bewilderment, their lies and the false path they take.

Carried away by human movement, with no real landmarks or true spiritual leader, religious no longer fulfill their mission, our valiant believer seeks, wants answers and none gets none. Since the dominant ideas or philosophies are conveyed Satanic order, he gets carried away, and his belief wavers. Even more, unfortunately, if he listens to his misfortune, false religious preach hatred, violence and call for bloodshed. There, if his faith falters, it will be lost.

That is why, knowing that the man from weakness and ignorance is influenced by sinful human beings, God intervenes in several ways. Through messengers of course, but also directly with each of us.

Also, having noticed that our believer, just and righteous man departs from the right path, God intervenes to help him avoid falling into the trap set by the forces of evil. The ardent desire of the Being of Light is to bring the just, and more specifically all men to think carefully about their situation, to have the senses on the alert, to recognize easily the deceitful comments and hate from the son of perdition; to be able to differentiate between messengers of God to those of the devil, and understand that the Being of Light alone by his holy word, leads man to the pure light.

If you remain strongly shaken by doubt, and do not know what to do or how to go about it, God will test you, so you can challenge you, you make your self critical, and you ask calmly when you sin, and what are the pernicious data that the false monks deforming the word of the Eternal placed in your spirit, and that you must check out.

When a father sees his child away from the right path, committing all sorts of crimes, violate the law and order, living in rebellion and aggression, carried away by little advisable persons holding unfair comments, deceptive and full of hatred, prompting him to deviate from the truth by pressing him to follow a path that leads into the darkness, Would not he resume him??

Him he would inflict no punishment for help to mend his ways, correct his mistakes and to change his behavior?

It is the same with our Heavenly Father; seeing that we continue to walk the path of evil, discarding the right track, we reject his divine laws and adopt those customs and traditions from imperfect human, dirigiste and personalized that we are unable to humbly follow the right path, to divert and distract us from dishonest men and other false religious who change his holy word, making us unable to recognize their iniquity; God punishes us as a loving father does for his children. It imposes hardships, kinds of pitfalls that arise during our earthly existence, to make us aware of reality and that we respond in the right direction this time, while showing us the way forward, and providing us the best advice.

As I wrote in a previous issue, these events have nothing to do with karma, because those arising from the latter are in fact the result of our misdeeds, our sins, and thus subject to the law of cause with effect. While those that concern us here, are primary and essential goal by being confronted, and solving the data emanating from them, then destroying all the negative effects they create, consolidate our gains, strengthening our resistance to repel the evil in all its forms, and beings who are the source, to get away from them, to walk without ever approaching us, follow the path of light that leads to God, to reach the state of arousal and supreme joy, to meet our Heavenly Father.

They also allow us to challenge ourselves, to see how evil causes the disaster; we realize how much God told the truth and is totally right.

Christ said:

Whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst, and the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will live forever.

Remember my friends, that this water and this bread are the word of God and teaching. If you listen, learn, remember and enter this word in your mind, it will protect you from everything and your reality will assert spiritual entity on earth as in heaven. If you feed yourself and if you Soak the holy word of God, verily, I say to you, you will walk confidently on the path of light that leads to your Heavenly Father. For you, there will be no fear.

Also, watch this docile child, obedient, disciplined, confident in the teaching of God, who wants to learn, which is eager to grow spiritually, who knows that the word of God is truth and life, and understands that all tests it faced, however difficult they may be, are there to help him find the way without any hesitation of light, and not to deviate.

Therefore, I urge you not to acknowledge God and through twists and mostly unfairly, for the suffering that you suffer because they are always the result of your actions based on evil, except those resulting from trials that are inflicted by God in order to refocus you, take you back to reason, on the right path and help you consolidate your gains. In any case, think carefully about my friends, and ask yourself what you did wrong, unjust, irrational, and correct the abnormal, taking God as a sure guide, and adopt permanently by writing in golden letters his word and his teachings in your heart. Only him can save you, because he is really the way, the truth and the life.

God said:

All souls are mine. The soul of the son as the soul of the father. One and other are mine. The soul which sins shall die.

The man who is right, who practices law and justice, who does not seduce the wife of his neighbor, who exploit nobody, who makes the debtor his pledge, which commits no robbery, who gives the bread to the one who is hungry, who covers with clothes the one who is naked, who does not lend at interest and does not take the wear, who turns his hand from injustice and judge the truth between two men, who follows my directions and observes my ordinances, acting according to truth, this one is just, he shall live for sure.

Come back and turn yourselves from all your crimes, so that your fault is not a stumbling block. Throw back far from you all the crimes which made you criminal. Get a new heart and new spirit.

Why should you die?

Because I do not wish the death of one who dies. Repent therefore, and live.

Proofs that God inflicts my friends are all beneficial. Once you're immersed in doubt, they are there to help you easily find the right path, and understand that the only spiritual path led him, not the materialistic way in which men are confined. Moreover they allow men to become aware of their realities, those of spiritual beings, and finally they behave as such.

They then penetrate the truth, and the words of BEING OF LIGHT they will appear much clearer. They will make the difference between right and wrong, the good and the evil, and can easily recognize false words spoken here and there by men with dark hearts and dark thoughts, whose aim is obvious losing all men, and lead them into darkness. They will succeed and deviate away from them. Evil can never reach them.

You are all crossing the earth my friends, and you aspire all to return to the Heavenly Jerusalem, and finally enter the divine temple to remain there and live with God forever.

Nor shall you if you reject definitively evil in all its forms, whether you choose the good, justice and peace, and you purify your spiritual essence.

That is why God says that we need not only bread, but we especially need his holy word, which is the true heavenly food, or drink the pure water from the divine stream whose source is in the bosom of God.

Remember my friends in the words of Christ:

To enter the kingdom of God, you must be baptized by water and spirit.

Include:

Enter the kingdom of God, all who have become aware of their realities, those of spiritual entities, which consume as food and beverage, education and the holy word of God.

Search your heavenly Father, all my friends; because He loves you more than you can imagine.

God said:

He who persevere and walk on my path and apply my rules, I will give him rest and eternal life.

Verily I say unto you my friends, I who am his servant and witness what God says is truth and life. So, listen, and follow the trust.

Christ in his teaching, brought this truth:

Because you have there, in paradise, five trees that do not change in summer or in winter, and which the leaves do not fall. Those who know these will not taste death.

These words spoken by Christ reveal to men a true ignored by them, that I resumed by supplementing under divine inspiration. In truth, they relate to our Heavenly Father.

The Lord told Daniel to point out to men that their new knowledge will be revealed in the course of time. So he asked me to give you the keys of truth, knowledge and spiritual science, which I did.

What do these five trees, or more precisely, what are they?

In seeking to convey to men the first time of creation, specifically the era that preceded it, God made these revelations to John:

In the beginning was God and him alone. He decided to implement a monad, which itself was the only representation, the only component, which would be an indecomposable unit.

The monad is a union of five beings of light (in the sense most noble and purest) that nothing dominate. The exact formula that God gives me is:

The monad is a unity, composed of five divine spiritual beings, divine or five sources (as I call Being of Light), whose five are one, as an integral part of the ONE. This is a inseparable UNIT.

The monad is the heavenly Father, God the supreme source of everything. It is the unseen divine essence that composes and have dominion over all things. He is God himself, he who is in incorruptibility, established in the pure light that no eye can see. He is the invisible spirit.

GOD is, A, while being a union of five beings of light (which is for the five who are independent and autonomous in relation to each other, the only representation) and the five divine sources are to be united in ONE divine being.

What is this union or monad, which God is the only representation?

Here comes the first one

The one that John called the power of the thought, and glorious Barbélo.

And I tell you, it is the pure divine essence, the original source, the first principle of all existence. It is the absolute component at all, the original matrix, the container and the contents of all things. It is the Holy Spirit, and the only representation of pure light. It is light, its source, its single image and pure energy. It is the perfect power which and from which everything emerges. It is the absolute component of the invisible or heavenly and spiritual world, and the material universe in which the man lives. He is the perfect virginal divine spiritual being. He is the one that emerged from the four other beings of light, which are still parts of his divine essence included the monad. It is the original power and creative decision-making, Without which nothing can be. He is the first and primary source of everything.

The second being of light

He is the master of time, and the only one that is the perfect knowledge of the future, since he contains both the present, past and future. he is also the spirit of truth, so called by Christ, the Comforter. Heteaches any all things, and reminds to the men all that the Christ said and taught. He is the one that sends men to come to the facts as well as celestial beings, so that they reflect in their behavior.

The third being of light

It is the breath of life, or what I call principle, the vivifying source. He is the owner and the propagator of life. The germ and the spark of life which allow all things and men to live, since they derived from him. He is the one who emits and spreads the vital element in all things and in the infinite space

The fourth being of light

He is the source or the principle of truth, one that contains it and has revealed to the heavenly beings and to the men. He is the one who passes on the knowledge, the spiritual science and the. He teaches all things and made known to men the truth about the data on everything that exists and lives. He is the light which guides beings and transmits the heavenly mysteries.

The fifth being of light

He is the spark of pure light, the driving force. He is known as the Word, God the Creator, also called wrongly by John, the only son. He who entered Jesus' body and assisted in his earthly mission, carrying out works that man attributes to Jesus, and called miracle. He said:

I realize all the promises made by my servants.

He is the one that you all know under the name of Christ. He is also the one that you know under the name of Melchizedek. Remember my friends, did he not been told the latter:

He is king of Salem, priest of God. He is first of all a king of justice, then king of Salem, that is to say, king of peace. He is without father, without mother, without genealogy. He has neither beginning of days nor end of life. And made like the son of God he remains a priest continually.

My friends, you know now that God is ONE, while being a union of five beings of light or divine sources, of whom he is himself five times the representation, in ONE and only DIVINE BEING.

We have there five trees of the paradise about which spoke Christ; these trees do not change; they remain the same, and they are indecomposable. They play independently each other, while being united with each other, a fundamental role in the brand. Without them who are GOD, and especially the first one which is the source and the first principle of all, the pure spirit or the holy spirit, raw power, nothing can be, nothing can do this. Any alterations or modifications can only be made by God, because he only remains the source element. That is why Christ said.

No one can go to the Father except through me.

Because he is the direct link that leads to the Father or rather to the Holy Spirit. If the father remains the light source that spreads all, his four other representations which the Christ belongs to, has also divine link, and retransmits them in turn, to the celestial beings and to the spiritual entities that are men. The four beings of light that are part of his divine essence, while being God himself, are the first brood, which remains the largest and has the full power. He is the one about whom the Christ :

If you blaspheme against the father or son, you forgive, but if you blaspheme against the Holy Spirit, we will not forgive you, whether on earth or in heaven.

You now know a little more your heavenly Father.

Do not Fear.

Verily I say unto you, if anyone keeps My word he shall never see death.

The ignorance of the data on the truth, God, the mysteries of earth and heaven, lead men to be afraid of what it may have in what they call the beyond; afraid of what they will find there; further more asking themselves how it is? What will they find there? How will they live there?.

It is however necessary to recognize that Satan and his band of demons continuously worked hard since Adam and Eve by placing a lead weight and a veil over the earth, to keep people blind and deaf. Besides, he prevented them from knowing the truth, and implemented everything so that they continue to ignore the existence of God, teaching them false information, distorting and altering the truth and the word of God, saying to men in particular that there is nothing else than the earth, and the material universe in which this last, even to usurp the title of God. He obviously kept deliberately the men in ignorance, instilling an education based solely on materialism, whose envy, desire, lust, iniquity thereof. He pushed the men to call upon dark forces which he, himself is the leader, telling them to use for that magic and clairvoyance, if they want to solve the various problems they face, or to obtain an advantage of about materialistic, hiding them in reality they are unconsciously called him and his band of demons. The purpose of the devil, keep men blind and deaf, leading directly into the darkness, and make them believe that he is God. It was of course imposed on man, the culture of evil in all its forms, saying it was the only way forward. He has led men to harden their heart and closed their minds. He obviously kept telling them, he revealed to them only lies.

Satan does not know God, my friends, nor the truth. How want in these circumstances that he can say to you other thing than lies? How can he tell you anything other than to do evil and shed blood, cultivating fear in you?

Man lived in this state sadly over too long a period, passing on in his descent the same lack of data concerning the true God, truth, earthly and heavenly mysteries, and of course what he really is, a spiritual entity.

Then God came among men to make themselves known, to reveal his word to save them, giving them the precepts, laws and orders, commands, so they are better guided in the truth. He has at all times, behaved towards men with lots of love, kindness, compassion, sharing with them the knowledge, spiritual knowledge and science, through prophets and other messengers.

He is love and truth; his teaching is also rested on this base.

He often said:

I do not want one of you gets lost. I do not want you die. If you tread on my way, you apply my rules and that you keep my word, I will give you rest and eternal life.

Whatever God said my friends, is true. By cons, and he often said, one who chooses the path of evil, will die. This one, when his end comes, will worry about the fate that will be reserved, for fear what will happen, and he has moreover deserved.

But God in his boundless love for man said:

I am a God slow to anger.

This is to make clear to all who have followed the path of evil, to give it up, to stop their evil deeds, to correct the acts of wickedness committed, to reject evil in all its forms and to choose the right path, to repent and then God said:

Forget what they did.

It is written:

Those who have done good, unto the resurrection of life, but those who have done evil, unto the resurrection of Judgement. You will die in your sins. He who walks in darkness (ignorance of the truth and sin) do not know where he goes. The wicked go into everlasting punishment: but the righteous to eternal life. Everyone who does evil hates the light (God) and does not come to light, lest his works (his evil actions) are disclosed (revealed). But who will act according to truth, comes to light, that his deeds may be clearly seen (known and taken as an example) because they are wrought in God.

Regarding all those who walk, look up and follow the Lord in all his ways, and a bright future awaits them beautiful.

That is why my friends, repeating the same words of the Being of Light I tell you, do not be afraid, for verily I say unto you, you have absolutely nothing to fear, but rather much to gain.

When your end will come at a time known only by God, the spark of life will be removed from your mortal coil by you and the celestial beings whose are responsible (among other things); as a spiritual entity of choice, you will abandon the empty body and you will find your true under appearance and spiritual form, in the spiritual world, and will be greeted by the heavenly beings with love.

You will be reborn or resurrected as God (Christ) had said; and you will enter the kingdom of your Father in heaven. Remember these words of God my friends.

The LORD of hosts make unto all peoples on this mountain (the heavenly Jerusalem) a feast of fat things, a feast of old wine ...

On this mountain he will destroy the veil that is over all peoples, the coverage that covers all nations. He will swallow up death forever. The Lord, the ETERNAL will wipe the tears from all faces.

Not looking for more things in life (the goods and material pleasures are ephemeral and disappear) because all these things do the Gentiles (atheists and denialists) who seek them. Your heavenly Father knows that you need them. Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness and all these things will be over.

Ask and you shall receive. Seek and ye shall find. Knock and it shall be opened.

In truth, my friends, whatever God says is true, because I am now seeing. If like me you are looking for the Being of Light, if you walk on the path of light as your heavenly Father traced to man, you too are ready, calm, confident, in a state of total calm and willing go find him in his heavenly home. You wait with joy the moment of your departure from the earth.

You can easily like me, share your enthusiasm for all people your brothers and sisters and tell them to imitate you, because you know where you go, and also by you (and me) will know it too.

God asked me to hand you the keys of knowledge and spiritual science, my dear friends, I passed them. Now you hold them, keep them carefully. Therefore, I now ask you to follow me, so that together we would find our Heavenly Father.

To you my friends I said: you will never fear again; because God will always be with you. Now you know him and you know how to join him. Remember my friends, these words of Christ.

I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.

I repeat again my dear friends, I come to you, that ye all follow me and together on this path of light and joy, we were all without exception, in our heavenly Father.

Remember his promises:

They see the glory of the LORD, the excellency of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands and make firm the feeble knees. Tell those who are troubled heart:

Take courage, not fear. Here is your God will come with vengeance. The reward of your God. He will come himself and save you. Then the eyes of the blind will open; the ears of the deaf will open. Then will the lame leap like a deer and the mute tongue shout for joy, because the waters break out in the desert and streams in the desert.

The mirage shall become a pool, and the parched land into springs of water. In the den, which served as shelter to the jackal, grow reeds and rushes. There will be there, a paved road, a road called the holy way.

No one unclean shall not pass, it will be for them (the children of God) alone. Those who follow, though fools, shall not go astray. On this road, no lion, no wild animal will do, no it does not meet. The walk will be issued, the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion (the heavenly kingdom, the heavenly Jerusalem, the Temple of God, are at GOD) with songs of triumph and joy eternal. The joy and gladness, sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Distant peoples, gender, children of the earth, be careful. All of you, assemble yourselves, and listen. Come to me, and listen.

From the beginning, I have not spoken in secret. Dice behind these things, I was there. I the LORD thy God, I teach you for your good. I led you in the way you should follow. With a voice of gladness proclaim it, publish it, let us know until the end of the earth.

The time has come, to gather all nations and all languages. They will come and see my glory. I will set a sign among them, and I will send survivors to the nations who have never heard of me, and have not seen my glory. They shall declare my glory among the nations. In the heavenly Jerusalem, the holy city where God dwells, no more be heard of violence in your country, or devastation or destruction within your borders. You will give the name of thy walls salvation and your gates praise.

It will not be the sun that you will light during the day nor the moon will shine its light, but the LORD will be your light forever. Thy God thy glory. Your sun never sets, and your moon will not withdraw more, for the LORD will be your light forever. The days of thy mourning shall be ended. There will be more than just your people. They shall inherit the land for ever.

Here I will spread it (the heavenly Jerusalem) peace like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream, and you will be breastfed. You will be worn on the arms, and fondled on the knees, like a man whom his mother comforts, so I (the Lord) I will comfort you. You will be comforted over Jerusalem. You see, your heart will rejoice.

I am against the prophets who lead my people astray with their lies and their recklessness. Beware of false prophets. They introduce destructive heresies, and even denying the Master who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. Several follow them into their solutions, and the way will be slandered because of them. By greed they will exploit you with deceptive words that threatens their long sentence, and failure of not slumber.

These words of God reason as bells, and are a warning. They were revealed to men by Jeremiah more than 2000 years ago to tell the men to beware of blindly listen to false prophets and true servants of the devil, whose purpose remains solely to mislead; instead essentially seek to feed and drink his holy word, which is only salvation.

These false prophets and false teachers of such wisdom, these false spiritual leaders, will use all the tricks as they already do for a hundred years, acting on the wave rushing spiritual or intentionally in this way, to bring to men after they say, a thorough knowledge about the spiritual mysteries, which they keep well clear of the wrong grade, truncated at the opposite of reality, false, a thousand binders from the truth. Their goal is clear, continue the work of Satan: mislead men in order to keep them in darkness and thus prevent them from seeking God, then find the path of light that leads to it.

So you know who they are, all go back to the earliest ages. Remember my friends, these fallen angels who dared to rebel and turn against God, challenging his authority and preeminence.

God said to Satan before expelling him from the celestial kingdom:

You seal up perfectly, you were full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God. You were covered with all kinds of precious stones. Your tambourines and flutes were in thy service, prepared for the day that thou wast created. You were a guardian cherub, with outstretched wings. I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God. You walked among the fiery stones. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, until that injustice has been found in you. The importance of your trade you were filled with violence and you sinned.

I exclude you from the mountain of God, and I will destroy thee O covering cherub, from among the fiery stones. Your heart became arrogant because of thy beauty. You corrupted your wisdom for your glory. I'll throw you down. You'll never be anything.

From the sound of his fall, I'm shaking the nations, when I did go down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit. Them too, (fallen angels) came down with him in the grave. They were his support and they lived in its shade among the nations.

Who do you look like and in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden?

There you will down with the trees of Eden, (fallen angels) in the depths of the earth. Men shall tremble at every moment of their lives, the day of thy fall.

The LORD God commanded Michael and his Angels to expel Satan and his fallen angels out of the heavenly kingdom, and send them to the material binary universe and to the earth in particular.

Knowing the deadly plans of the devil and his band of demons, God through his messengers, had warned the men to stand on guard because Satan came towards them, carrying a lot of anger and desire for revenge .

At first, they ventured to take a human body among men, married girls they found beautiful, and had children who, like them, had a demonic form. During this disastrous period, Satan and his horde of fallen angels built a machiavellian system consisting in teaching to the men a packaged knowledge of which they would become the supervisor, and those to whom humans would call without knowing it.

Among the pernicious data which Satan and his demonic assistants inculcated to men are:

magic, witchcraft, divination, the art of interpreting dreams.

Satan was careful not to reveal to men that if they took part did so, they would automatically call themselves and then to dark forces, and would immediately initiate ignorance forces of evil in action. That is why God asks men and women not to indulge them, because they deal without knowing the forces of evil.

Seeing the extent of the wickedness of the devil and evil beings that accompany their perversity, their cynicism, and anxious to protect men, God commanded them to leave the human body they occupied, and shut in the world of darkness, created especially for them. They will remain a defined period, known only by God. Then they will be released for a limited time, and locked up again.

Remember my friends, that Satan and his assistants always want men to have been expelled from the kingdom of heaven, and have thus lost all of his prerogatives.

The men were pleased to have been liberated from tyranny and evil perpetrated by Satan, and thanked the Lord God. They then castigated the devil as follows:

What then, is no longer the oppressor, tyranny has ceased. The Lord has broken the club of the wicked rulers of the stick. He who in his anger struck the people, by blows relentlessly. He who in his anger subjugated nations, is ruthlessly pursued. Since you fell, you too are helpless like us, you have become like us. Your pride has been thrown into the grave. Beneath you lies a layer of vermin, and worms cover thee. What, you fell from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning, you are cut down to earth, you the tamer of nations. You wanted to make you the equal of the very top.

They went down uncircumcised into the depths of the earth, those who spread terror in the land of the living, and they wore their confusion with those who descend into the pit.

Unlike human beings to whom God offers a new chance to enter the kingdom of heaven, if they behave well, Satan and his assistants will return there again. They knew the truth, God, and lived in the celestial kingdom. Then Satan, wanting to be equal with God, opposed it, rejecting the same time the ways and laws of God, sin and establishing themselves as excluded from heaven. They will so roam up to the final judgment concerning them, whose only God knows the date.

In truth, my friends, yes indeed I'm telling you, the day known only by God, evil in all its forms, the forces of darkness which Satan and the fallen angels are the dispensers will be eradicated. God will destroy them permanently.

In the meantime, they are unfortunately still possible for men, with the express permission of God, and for a limited time, to come to earth to corrupt human beings and try to bring them down, by encouraging them to take bad decisions.

Remember my friends, if God allows it so is simply to allow worthy son of the Being of Light to face the forces of evil, to resist them, then by fighting against them, to go out of it victorious by rejecting them definitively. They will go out of it then much stronger, having so strengthened their experiences, they will walk henceforth on the road of light with humility and insurance.

Know however my friends that God oversees the conduct of Satan and his assistants, by not allowing them to spread once more as the cruelty, tyranny. But he allows them to bring men to the test, to corrupt and mislead men. Thus, having identified among humans, perverted men or perverted women, gullible, weak on the spiritual plane, vain and accessible to the malefic ideas; they (the dark strengths, the sons of the perdition who are been supposed to be Beings of Light, that obviously they are not) contact them by means of false visions, being been supposed to be for Beings of Light. They then transmit to the contacted persons, a knowledge unknown to them, opposite to that which God teaches to men, and which is in fact a mixture including 5 % of truth, and 95 % of lie.

Remember my friends, knowledge about God, from one hand, then the truth of spiritual science, the earthly and spiritual mysteries, on the other hand, owned by Satan and the fallen angels, is actually very limited. So obviously, the knowledge they transmit to humans is false, misleading, and flies away from the truth.

If the people contacted by them listen to them and believe in them, not only they run to perdition, but if they do what they ask them to do, which unfortunately is already the case, they will lead many men and women in the darkness.

Listen to God my friends, him and only him, because he is really the truth.

Remember the counsel of God.

Some men say: God does not exist, and misfortune will not come upon us, we do not see sword or famine. The prophets are but wind, and nobody speaks for them. Listen to this foolish people and without heart. They have eyes but do not see, they have ears, but they do not hear.

It is your faults which disrupted everything.

Beware of anyone who tells you that everything goes well, that misfortune will not happen, and you have nothing to fear from the warnings of the Lord.

To achieve an end, the forces of evil among which Satan and the fallen angels are the germ, pose for Beings of Light that they are not. I say it once again. Under this misleading appearance, they come into contact with men and women, and through them, dropping on the ground a false knowledge. They ask them to spread in all directions, having previously created a pernicious sect, which is a corporation, provided for this purpose.

It is easy to recognize the pernicious, evil, aggressive and misleading knowledge spilled by these evil beings, whose representatives are the spokesmen, as you will notice that the focus of their teaching is highlighted: the nonexistence of God. Also my friends, they talk about God in a disrespectful manner, diminishing his role, however eminent and prominent in the boundless kingdom, minimizing his importance, questioning his uniqueness as they head up and claim: (Oh My Lord!) All men and women are God, and that each individual is a spark of God himself.

Wrong. They simply do not know God, and are fooled by the dark forces. Remember my friends, that Satan has always challenged God up wanting to be his equal, and entitled to his auxiliary fallen angels, as it does today through this perverse sect. That is why, wanting to be absolutely God, he incites men to do the same. The whole point of the false light beings and true fallen angels is to let people give them their own, their whole attention, which allows to better control them. They will as well make understand to the men and women as only they possess the knowledge, highlighting the pride and vanity which characterize them, and that they are the only one able to lead them to the spiritual future they aspire. Even here, everything they say to people is wrong, and keep lying.

They go up and to believe in human beings, they always act for their good and their spiritual future, flooding the entire earth with positive and beneficial vibration, and claim to reside in spiritual beings on other planets, in the other galaxies or solar systems and would travel in the ships built using brain waves and would be part of a galactic federation. My friends, what has been said, is proof that these creatures are among the fallen angels. If they say that they reside in the places described above, it is simply because they do not longer able to access the celestial spheres because of their exclusion. Of course they will fall silent this truth. Their goal is to lead you astray; mislead you; place the disorder in your mind; enslave you; require you to make bad decisions, including those that lead you directly into perdition.

The heavenly beings (the angels, the saints), the real beings of light my friends, live well in high and saint places, the heavenly world where Satan and his troops can not go.

To further confuse you, they usurp the known holy names, knowing that you listen and do everything they tell you. The wolf can take on the appearance of the lamb, my friends, you will recognize his voice still reluctant to truth, in which the total content and most of the teaching of God are absent. Moreover, when you browse their writings revealed by this sect in their pay, you will notice that their teaching is superficial, they never come into depth as I did, thank God, because it is simply as that: neither they have the true knowledge, nor they have the required skills. Having a bad back, they never addressed the subjects or the divine word of God whose base is-love-goodness justice-peace. They will do everything to avoid it, just talking about what they best know and that emanate from their own doing, whose vibrations dark and evil are drawn. They will never tell you to abandon and reject evil in all its forms, otherwise they would deny themselves.

No my friends, they will never tell you. They will make you believe that those who do evil have nothing to fear, that nothing will happen to them, or the punishments to the evil consequences of their fault or suffering they have caused to others, is that the wind and lie. Satan continues with you what he did with Adam and Eve.

Do not believe in them my friends; they hate you and want your loss. See God's words quoted above. As I have indicated above, they do not know God, and as the first of them, the devil, they all believe, each and collectively be God himself. As Satan did believe in angels when he was still in the celestial kingdom, he was similar to the LORD, even telling them he was God himself. Now they have all been expelled from paradise, yet they continue; and now persuade men that they are too God himself.

My friends all that is wrong.

Look my friends, how Satan and his demonic assistants do not love God. When they speak of the Lord and the first divine being alive, they call it with contempt:

The source.

Verily I say unto you my friends, I am deeply hurt to know that these foul beings can treat my father and your father in heaven with too little respect. This is outrageous and insulting from their part. This is an additional proof my friends, that they do not really know God. Stay away from them, do not listen to them, Throw all their papers, turn them the back as well as to this pernicious sect.

My dear friends, whatever God says is true, God and his word is really a food and beverage that leads to eternal life.

Be a good listener my friends, then from God's teaching, you will come to recognize the deceptive messages. As once Satan did with Adam and Eve, when he told them that the wise advice that the Lord had given them was contrary to the truth, they would not die if they ate the fruit of the forbidden tree, on the contrary, they would become like Gods.

The false light beings today, as at that time, contact blinded men and women by means of false visions, and through the wicked sect, transmit to humans a truncated education, outside reality, untrue, as did the snake.

While the Supreme Being of Light, the one and only true God, by love for men and women of the earth exhort them to to reject the evil under all its forms at the risk of penalty further to a judgment, false beings of light and true son of perdition follow the same approach as the snake and the devil did to Adam and Eve. They also keep saying to people, it is not so, and that this is not true. They say their way of specifying the men, those who follow the path of evil, and thus make others suffer, and they will incur no penalty or punishment. They will even tell the men they have nothing to fear if they do evil.

Their education is obviously false.

See my friends as their behavior and their approach vis-à-vis men is similar to the ones they had for our first parents.

See my friends like what they say to men today are the same as those that Satan was given to our first parents.

Another example is the deceptive messages sent by these false light beings to belligerent sect, developing and spreading the scandalous idea that men are the epitome of God.

This data is simply false, despicable and unconscionable in respect of the Supreme Being of Light, and shows clearly that they do not know him. Let us examine one moment my friends, this against the truth.

You've noticed my friends, behavior, thoughts, good or cynical, misleading or perfect ideals, philosophies or warlike sound, bad or good acts, aggressive or soothing words that inspire the men?

This set of fact clearly shows that they (men) have knowledge and have different intentions and illegally distributed. Their differing degrees of knowledge, according to a plurality of spiritual development and elevation, showing an obvious inequality.

If all men were like they (the son of perdition) claim a single being, then this being must be very perturbed and divided. It would also bring to light the misunderstanding that he would have of himself, and it would highlight the search of his own essence; he would look for himself or would try to confide better.

My friends, I am astounded by so much nonsense.

Christ had said about this topic:

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself can not stand.

And I tell you, a being or a man is disturbed, if he wants to know who he is. If his intentions are multiple, his wisdom is varied and uncertain, his behavior is muddled, his thoughts are changeable and centred on the evil, it is all over him.

Now my friends, God is not so. He is a divine Being in his own right, as I have revealed him to you.

These false Beings of Light by means of this detestable sect, seeking to mislead people, sow by cunning, using all possible tricks and lies, of course, to place in the minds of human confusion. They try obviously to impose and to mislead the men, by spreading false information which will inevitably generate ignorance and rejection of God, and psychic and mental wandering.

God has always given to men, and that from the beginning, the best advice available. That is why today, I urge people to not blindly follow these supposed teachings, which you can see now, appear questionable and disclosed for the sole purpose of keeping human beings not only in confusion, but also make them blind and deaf, get them to harden their heart so that the holy word does not reach them, and so that they reject God. It is there, the work of the devil.

Base yourselves my friends, on the God's vivifying word, and on its teaching. Use them for comparison with data from these deceptive unfair beings; that will allow you to address the false ideas they carry. Never forget that they are in the pay if I may say, of Satan..

On the other hand my friends, these evil men do not know God; they have a black and dark background and aggressive intentions. They want only your loss; they want to prevent you from progressing, from evolving spiritually; they have only a fragmented knowledge of the kingdom of God. Their knowledge of data concerning the truth, the teaching to help men have the keys of knowledge relating to spiritual science, earthly and spiritual mysteries, are virtually nonexistent. How do you want under these conditions, that they pass on you right, real lessons?

Do not listen to these inequitable persons, do not follow them, turn them the back. Only God teaches the truth, and all that he says is the truth. God revealed to the men the various degrees of the knowledge, detailing, explaining, bringing to light the couples of opposite, so that man enters this divine teaching, knowingly choose his way; to remain on his ways and to apply his laws; knowing definitively that they are the safest, and they certainly lead to light and to God.

The purpose of Satan and his demonic assistants is to lose men and women as they did to Adam and Eve, and to take them away from God. Then to send them directly to the universe of the perdition where they live themselves.

Be a good listener my friends, and make the difference between the teaching of God's truth and false teaching of the devil. Do not make the same mistake as Adam and Eve; deviate from sons of the perdition; turn their back; close your eyes; cover your ears.

Listen to God my friends; and only to him; for verily I say unto you, he is really the way, the truth and the life.

You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die.

The word of God has brought through the centuries, nay, thousands of years, many questions followed by a multitude of interpretations, all equally silly and inaccurate as each other, and of course going against the direction actual words spoken.

At that time, Adam and Eve were juxtaposed with celestial beings, including Satan was somehow the first one, and the head.

Many religious, spiritual leaders see extrapolèrent historians, arguing that symbolized the forbidden fruit of knowledge of good and evil, and that required about divine, came from a false God. They even added that in this case, it is Satan who had the starring role, that of wisdom.

Satan, to ignorance of Adam and Eve, anxious not only to rally to his cause, but also to better lead them astray and away from God, made them understand that they can safely eat the forbidden fruit, in keeping well give them the real reasons for banning it also ignores itself and its own motivations.

Yet from the beginning, God only master of time, (the dimension of time and its two extensions remain alone) can know everything in advance and thus predict, prevent and contain such iniquitous behavior or as heavenly beings, such or such spiritual entities and thus make decisions or take a p p r o p r i a t e a c t i o n .

Thus, knowing in advance that he who was called Lucifer, son of the morning, the son of light and considered the wisest of the angels (in terms of knowledge from God) swollen of pride and vanity, would dare to rebel against him, even making her equal with other celestial beings, choosing the path opposite to hers and leading to destruction, God, seeking to protect Adam and Eve and preserve their stood the words quoted in the introduction. Motivated by the desire to create disorder pernicious in the minds of human beings, as the serpent called the devil, has made every effort to prevent men from entering the exact meaning of the divine warning, and know precisely what or rather that it referred the forbidden fruit. To better help you to penetrate and understand the exact meaning and have a perfect interpretation of God's warning, I will quote one of the criticisms that the Divine Being made to Satan.

You were in Eden, the garden of God. Thou wast upon the holy mountain (in the celestial universe) of God. Still you will be brought down (you'll be driven out of Paradise) to the netherworld with the trees (fallen heavenly beings) of Eden.

What has been said, begins to inform you is not it?

Then move on.

He was also known as the wisest of celestial beings, as such was the fact that he had received from the outset in the celestial kingdom of God, wisdom, knowledge concerning the spiritual science. The Lord does not, however, had revealed the secrets relating to the divine realm, nor the data.

That is why it is written:

You (Satan and the fallen heavenly beings) had the sky to notice, but not the top secrets you have not been revealed.

However, at that time, Satan was the most learned of heavenly beings, of which he was somehow superior. This position led him gradually to show pride, vanity, conceit. Unaware of God, the data relating to the truth, he thought of ignorance, he could be equal with God, even taking to God, contradicting the Lord, and modify the knowledge of Being light transmitted to Adam and Eve.

So when Satan said to Eve:

The day you eat the tree in the middle of paradise, the eyes of your heart open.

It should include:

The day you hear me, you'll know a lot. Being ignorant, you will become clever. I'll teach you.

The knowledge possessed by Satan in the field of spiritual science, the knowledge of good and evil, truth, and the celestial kingdom of God was much less, and is still very limited. That is why God, knowing all this, did not want Adam and Eve meet and especially listening. For he knew that this day they sign their loss. Hence the prohibition of God to Adam and Eve, to approach and listen to the words false and misleading (the forbidden fruit being there, the floor) of Satan.

Eve, instead of remaining faithful to the teaching environment and advised that she received from God, to trust him to walk on the right path he showed them to apply and enforce its laws and advice judicious and fair, might prefer to listen to about unfair and deceptive Satan. She saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing and proper to give insight (thought she relying on appearances) she took of the forbidden fruit, ate and then gave some to turn to her boyfriend Adam.

Yes my friends, I tell you the truth, the tree that God had expressly forbidden to touch, look, approach, listen, and eat the fruit (the fruit here is the word false, the teaching false and truncated) is nothing but the foul Satan, whose disastrous designs consisted then and this is still the case today, to mislead the people, to create disorder in their and spirit them away from God.

Adam and Eve lived at that time, amid the heavenly beings, and were taught by God directly. Celestial beings, including Satan was the first, together formed the Garden of Eden, and were these famous trees in the group.

Enoch had said when he was transported in the garden of justice.

There I saw among other things, several tall trees covered with flowers. There was also the tree of knowledge, whose flowers brighten the mind of one who feeds on them. It is the tree of science, including Adam and Eve ate.

God asked Adam and Eve not to approach, not to listen to Satan because of all the trees (because of all the celestial beings) alone could mislead them by making them follow a path that inevitably leads and helplessly in the darkness, to oblivion and death. God knew that thoughts take Satan to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, would focus on lies and ignominy.

God was right.

Adam and Eve, having become aware of their nakedness, confectionnèrent clothes and hid. They came to realize their intellectual and spiritual deprivation. In truth nudity here, symbolizes ignorance and lack of knowledge.

The tree should not approach or play, Satan and the forbidden fruit that we should not eat or drink, his word is false, perfidious, perverse, sly, full of iniquity, wickedness, devoid of truth as pronounced for men astray and away from light, that is to say God. Move back from the devil, do not approach, do not watch what you watch, do not listen, turn it back. Not only does he not know God, but your knowledge as knowledge, wisdom, spiritual heavenly mysteries are zero. What can you learn in these conditions, nothing.

Not knowing God, Satan dared to be his equal is to say, claiming he was God. He still continues to claim to be the Lord, and also goes to say that human beings are too. Like Adam and Eve, many of the present generation, have been misled, and fall into the same trap of the devil, thinking sadly be God too. Of course, verily I say unto you, all that is wrong.

Neither Satan nor humans are God, and never will.

Listen to God my friends; only to him.
